LUMP ACCESSORY IN MURDER PLOT STATES WARRANT

Papers Will Be Sent to New York and Barber Brought Back for Joshua Crawford Death Investigation.

LAWYER SAYS LOVERS SCHEMED FOR FORTUNE

Lump and Mrs. Crawford Broke Engagement So She Could Marry Old Man, Say Witnesses for Relatives.

A warrant was sworn out before Magistrate Girardeau at 3:45 o'clock Tuesday afternoon charging Fred Lump, a New York barber, with being accessory before and after the fact in the Joshua B. Crawford murder case. This warrant will be sent to New York, and Lump brought back to Atlanta immediately, according to Colonel Joseph James, attorney for the Crawford heirs.

"The whole affair was planned in Florida by Lump and Mrs. Crawford, according to our witnesses," said Colonel James. "Lump had gone to St. Augustine before Mrs. Crawford met Mr. Crawford. Our witnesses say that Lump and Mrs. Crawford were sweethearts.

Called Him Old Turkey Buzzard.

"One of our witnesses, Mrs. E. C. Bursener, says that she frequently heard Mrs. Crawford say that 'I will marry the old turkey buzzard (Crawford), get his money, and then marry Lump.' Likewise, Mrs. Gertrude Painter will testify that Mrs. Crawford said that after Crawford was dead she would marry Lump and that Lump had consented to the arrangement. When asked as to how this would be accomplished, Mrs. Crawford, according to Mrs. Painter, said, 'I will tank him up on whisky and kill him that way.'

"Likewise we have witnesses to swear that Mrs. Crawford promised to give a man by the name of George Lashley, of Pittsburg, a house and lot, and pay money to a man named E. G. Eick, of Newark, N. J., if the two would persuade Lump to accept his release from marrying Mrs. Crawford.

"We shall charge that the plan then was to marry Crawford, do away with him, and then with the money marry Lump. Lump evidently agreed.

"A few weeks ago we had a deposition taken from Lump in New York which he admitted that he was in Atlanta at the time of Crawford's death. Likewise we have witnesses to prove that he remained in this city two months after the funeral of Crawford.

Lump Very Nervous.

"When this deposition was taken Lump was extremely nervous, although suffering from fright. In this deposition he stated that he stopped at a hotel on the south side of Marietta street opposite the city hall. As you know, there is no such hotel there. He also said that the reason he was here was that he was looking for a barber named 'Charlie,' and that he couldn't remember 'Charlie's' last name. He said that he had worked for 'Charlie' in St. Augustine, and that 'Charlie' had sent for him to come and work in Atlanta.

"Now we believe that Lump came to his city with Mrs. Crawford, and we think we can prove that he was with Crawford at the time of the latter's death.

"We also have evidence that Mrs. Crawford, who married under the name of Mrs. M. B. Savage, claimed a man by the name of Bishop, of Pittsburg, as her husband a short time before coming to St. Augustine. One of our witnesses, Mrs. Mary McDermott, will testify to this.

The Alleged Divorce.

"Likewise I hear that she claimed to have been divorced from Mr. Bishop at some time or other in her career."

It is likely that the prosecution will try to prove that coercion was used in bringing about the marriage of Crawford to the defendant.

In the civil hearing of the case before Judge Arthur Anderson, Mrs. L. C. Dillingsly, who lived at the Crawford residence on West Peachtree before the latter's death, stated that Joshua Crawford once remarked that "I would cut my throat from ear to ear before I would degrade myself by marrying his woman," referring to the defendant.

Mrs. Dillingsly told of a number of occasions when she talked with Crawford and said that Mrs. Crawford at the time attempted to provoke a Miss Abbott, sister of the witness.

No Effect on Case.

Should Fred Lump, the New York barber, be arrested on the warrant sworn out Tuesday charging him with accessory before and after the fact in the Crawford murder case, it will have absolutely no effect upon the case of Mrs. Mary Belle Crawford, according to her attorney, Burton Smith.

"There is not the slightest evidence of murder in this case," Mr. Smith said. "Therefore, Lump could not have been a party to such a crime. Besides, he was nowhere near Crawford at the time of his death.

"His arrest, should it occur, will have no effect at all on Mrs. Crawford, one way or the other. Even if Crawford had been murdered, it could not have affected the inheritance.

"Anyone who knows Mrs. Crawford knows that she could have not committed a crime such as murdering her own husband."

COMMITTEE VOTES DOWN STATE BOARD OF TAX EQUALIZERS

Ways and Means Majority Holds Tax Revision May Be Accomplished in the Counties.

MINORITY REPORT WILL BE OFFERED IN HOUSE

Line-Up of Tuesday Will Be Continued Until the Battle for Reform Has Been Fought Out.

By a vote of 13 to 9 the house committee on ways and means yesterday afternoon decided that no state board of equalizers should be provided for in the tax equalization bill to be reported this year, but only county boards of equalizers.

This action followed a discussion of several hours' duration, in which it developed that a strong line-up had been formed in the committee between those who felt that a state board of equalizers was an essential part of any adequate scheme of tax revision and those who felt county boards of equalizers would accomplish all that was needed just now.

Lipscomb Bill by Substitute.

After it had been decided that a state board of equalizers was not wanted, the committee voted to report as a substitute the Lipscomb bill, the bill drawn up by the subcommittee with two amendments proposed by Mr. Sheppard, of Sumter.

This bill follows substantially the original bill so far as county boards of equalizers are concerned, but strikes out all sections creating and defining the duties of a state board of equalization.

In the measure as reported no provision for the adjustment of taxation between the counties is made, that being left entirely as it is now, except that the comptroller general is given the right to call county boards' attention to such inequalization as he may find and to suggest and advise changes in assessments.

Minority Report.

Representative Swift, of Muscogee, gave notice on behalf of those who believed with him that a state board was necessary, that a minority report would be filed. It is quite certain that the nine men who voted for a state board, including Mr. Lipscomb himself, the author of the bill which was favorably reported by substitution, will sign the minority report and the line-up that was made in the committee will be carried into the house and senate and will be in evidence until the battle for tax revision in both bodies is fought to a finish.

On the motion which was made by Representative Garlington, of Richmond, that the sense of the committee be first taken as to whether a state board was wanted or not, the ayes and nays were called for with the following result:

How Committee Voted.

Ayes—Cole, Garlington, Jones of Coweta, Lipscomb, Nelson, Myrick, Rainey, Swift and Wheatley—9.

Nays—Bullard, Cooper, DeVaughan, Dorris, Evans, Jones of Lowndes, McGehee, Oliver, Paulk, Sheppard, Suggs, Stovall, Gilbert and Thompson—13.

The chairman, Mr. Akin, did not vote on the motion, as there was no tie, and he, of course, took no sides in the debate, but it is understood that he will present the majority report of the committee in the house and will stand for the bill which the majority reported.

Mr. Lipscomb, as matters now stand, will be placed in the rather anomalous situation of having to oppose on the floor of the house the passage of a bill which bears his name. He regards the elimination of the state board feature as entirely changing the intent of the bill and will oppose it with that left out.

Provision of Bill.

The bill reported provides for the creation of county boards of equalization in each county to be appointed by the superior court on the recommendation of the county commissioners in those counties which have boards of commissioners and in other counties on the recommendation of the ordinary, clerk and tax collector. They are to hold office for a term of six years and are to be paid not less than $2 nor more than $5 per day for the time that they actually work, the exact sum to be fixed by the county commissioners.

These equalizers shall review the tax returns as soon after the 1st of January of each year as possible and fix the assessments of each taxpayer. The dissatisfied taxpayer shall have the right of a hearing by

Mrs. Peel to Preside Over Open Meeting on Suffrage

MRS. WILLIAM LAWSON PEEL.

At the solicitation of her many friends among Atlanta's prominent men and women, Mrs. William Lawson Peel, wife of Colonel William Lawson Peel, president of the American National bank, has consented to preside over a public meeting where the subject of woman's suffrage will be discussed. The meeting will take place next Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock in Taft hall, and already a dozen or more of Atlanta's leading men and women have consented to make five-minute talks on the subject of suffrage.

At last the time has come when this all-important subject, which has agitated the press and people of two worlds, which has put prime ministers under guard, which has made volunteer martyrs of British maids and matrons and embarrassed that Chesterfieldian body, the Georgian senate, is to be threshed out with equal representation on both sides of the question.

The meeting has been brought about by the determination of a group of patriotic Georgia women who believe that some expression on the subject will relieve a great many minds, unclog the machinery of a good many organizations and give those who have felt burdened with richness of thought on the subject an opportunity to get rid of some of it and at the same time enlightening many who up to the present moment have but a vague idea of the real meaning of the suffrage question.

Mrs. Peel to Tell Views.

"I have consented to preside at the meeting with no idea of leading people one way or the other, with no idea of organizing for or against the measure, and I will take the opportunity of expressing my individual feeling on the subject.

"No, I have no idea of stating before the time of the meeting what my views are," confirmed Mrs. Peel. "I will not take more than the allotted five minutes' time, though what I have to say covers a great deal of careful study on the subject.

"There are volumes of good argument which can be brought forward on both sides, and after the recent action of Illinois and the nine other states which have given women the right to vote it is timely that the people of the Empire State of the South at least post themselves on the merits of the suffrage.

"At this meeting there will be brought into discussion the master minds of men and women alike, for what concerns one concerns the other.

"The purpose of the meeting is patriotic first and foremost," declared Mrs. Peel, "for whatever takes the prominent form of a law means the direct relation to the life of the commonwealth, in which women are as much a part as men, therefore women and men together might as well work the subject out together.

"Let women tell why they want the vote or why they don't want it. Let the men tell why they think the women ought or ought not to vote, and then let the representative audience of men and women act as jury and announce the verdict.

"The meeting will be educative as well as interesting and at least indicate that men and women are not afraid to get together in Georgia and discuss vital questions."

BRANTLEY'S NAME WAS BLACKLISTED BY LOBBY'S ORDER

Chief Lobbyist Mulhall Swears That the "Interests" Urged That the Georgia Congressman Be "Knocked Out."

MANY CONGRESSMEN DISLIKED BY LOBBY

And, Like Brantley, Were Blacklisted — Mulhall Declares Tariff Board Was Created by Manufacturers.

The name of former Congressman W. G. Brantley, of Georgia, figured in the senate lobby inquiry in Washington Tuesday.

Martin L. Mulhall, self-confessed chief lobbyist for the National Manufacturers' association, swore that Brantley was on the "black list" of the manufacturers, and that orders were issued to "knock out" the Georgian along with other congressmen not liked by the association.

This development in regard to Brantley is a bit remarkable in view of the fact that during his last term in congress he was lampooned in certain papers as a "Cannon democrat" and a "tool of the interests."

The sworn statement of the chief lobbyist, however, shows that Brantley was so hostile to the "interests" that they ordered him to be "knocked out."

Washington, July 15.—The senate lobby investigating committee made 410 knots today over the sea of the Martin M. Mulhall correspondence. It was a record run, but a number of fish were landed. Mulhall was in the witness chair and Senator Reed at the helm of the investigating bark for most of the five hours it was steaming ahead.

Mulhall identified 410 letters, telegrams and memoranda put in the record by the committee with only a bit more hesitancy than he evinced before, although he was cautioned by Senator Reed to look closely at the slips handed to him.

Probably the most sensational feature during the hearing was the introducing of a memorandum which Mulhall said was a "blacklist" of congressmen whose defeat was sought by the manufacturers.

Congressmen to "Knockout."

Mulhall thought the "blacklist" had been prepared by former Congressman James E. Watson. It follows:

"Watson: Here's a list for you to to knock out: Candler, Mississippi; Hamlin, Missouri; Danforth, New York; Payne, New York; Lever, South Carolina; Graham, Illinois; Lobeck, Nebraska; Beall, Texas; Stephens, John H., Texas; Bowman, C. C., Pennsylvania; Lloyd, Missouri; Clark, Missouri; Humphreys, Mississippi; Carter, Oklahoma; Brantley, W. G., Georgia; Hull, Tennessee; Bulkley, Ohio; Burgess, Texas; Towner, Iowa; Focht, Pennsylvania; Gardner, Massachusetts; Henry, George, Jr., New York; Henry, R. L., Texas; Hinds, Maine; Lindbergh, Minnesota; Rees, R. R., Kansas; Reilly, Connecticut; Foster, Vermont."

Senator Reed wanted to know more about the association's tariff and reciprocity activities.

"The National Association of Manufacturers created and solely created the tariff commission," declared Mulhall.

Mulhall's Many Activities.

Mulhall's attention was directed today almost exclusively to the last half of the year 1907 and the first part of 1908. He was jumped from Maine to Missouri, from Baltimore to Indianapolis and up to Cleveland in those

Wilson Asked to Name Salary That'll Keep Bryan on the Job

BELL RETURNS TO THE ATTACK ON HOKE SMITH

Congressman Says That the Senator Was Committed to the Defeat of A. S. Hardy in Advance.

CHARGES SMITH WORKS IN A MYSTERIOUS WAY

Bell Says Senator Is Trying to Unload Responsibility on an "Interloper" — Georgia Appointments Held Up.

By John Corrigan, Jr.

Washington, July 15.—(Special.)—"I did insist that Senator Smith give me his support in the appointment of A. S. Hardy at Gainesville, but would not have been so insistent had I known he was committed to Hardy's defeat in advance," said Representative Bell today in returning to the attack on Senator Smith for the failure of Bell's nominee to win the postmastership.

Taking up Senator Smith's demand for "efficiency" in the federal service, Mr. Bell asks if this was one of the reasons why Mr. Hardy was turned down. The latter is editor of a daily newspaper in Gainesville, and his indorsements were passed over and the place awarded to a lady far advanced in years, the widow of a man formerly prominent in local politics.

Bell's Formal Statement.

Here is Mr. Bell's formal statement:

"Senator Smith's statement that he would approve any appointment made at the Gainesville office does not relieve the situation in the least, because in my judgment he knew better than I that Mr. Hardy would never be appointed and he was safe in making this promise.

"His statement that he had insisted that the president's friends and his must be considered in the different appointments in Georgia is superfluous because conditions surrounding federal patronage in Georgia show that they have been cared for. He might have added in safety that anti-Smith-Wilson people had not been sufficiently considered. If so I would be glad to be furnished with a list of their opponents in Georgia who have been fortunate enough to get federal offices in Georgia, as I would like to congratulate each one and in some way locate the influence by which it was done, as it might be helpful to me.

"I am glad that Senator Smith in his indorsements considered first 'efficient service to the government.' However, I have not been questioned on that point with respect to appointments made upon my recommendation, and inefficiency might have been one of the things kept secret from me in connection with the Gainesville appointment.

Urged Smith to Support Hardy.

"I did insist upon Senator Smith giving me his support in the appointment of A. S. Hardy at Gainesville, but would not have been so insistent had I known he was committed to Hardy's defeat in advance.

"I did insist that an interloper who had no legitimate interest in the Gainesville appointment should not be allowed to interfere because of his affinity kinship to the white house and that it was Senator Smith's duty to use his influence to help me prevent it, but no appeal I could make availed anything. This convinced me that he was really pleased he had unloaded the responsibility upon one 'who knows no fears' to avoid the criticism of himself. Truly he 'works in a mysterious way his wonders to perform.'"

Among the nominations for postmasters made by Representative Bell six have been approved by the department. Every one of these were Smith-

Senator Bristow Introduces a Resolution About Difficulty "Commoner" Is Having in Living on $1,000 a Month.

BRYAN WILLING TO LOSE MONEY FOR HIS COUNTRY

But He Declares He Intends to Supplement Salary by Lecturing During Vacation. He Thinks His Lectures Do Good.

Washington, July 15.—Washington today was interested chiefly in developments following Secretary Bryan's statement that he had to spend his vacation on the lecture platform because he couldn't live on the secretary of state's salary of $12,000 a year.

The lobby investigation, the tariff and the Mexican situation were forgotten temporarily, at least, while everybody talked about the resolution introduced by Senator Bristow calling on the president to "advise the senate what would be a proper salary to enable the present secretary of state to live with comfort and enable him to give his time to the discharge of his public duties."

When the Bristow resolution was read, amid republican laughter, Democratic Leader Kern and other senators immediately objected to its consideration and after a few brief exchanges it went over. It was fully discussed, however, in the lobbies and cloak rooms at both ends of the capitol.

Bryan Issues Statement.

Later Secretary Bryan issued this statement:

"When Mr. Bryan's attention was called to some criticisms that had been published in regard to his lecturing, he replied as follows:

"I am glad to have the criticism brought to my attention. I believe in criticism of public officials. Criticism is helpful. If a man makes a mistake, criticism enables him to correct it; if he is unjustly criticised the criticism helps him. I have had my share of criticism since I have been in public life, but it has not prevented my doing what I thought proper to do.

"In devoting a part of my vacation to lecturing, I am doing what I believe to be proper, and I have no fear whatever that any candid person will criticise me when he knows the facts.

"For seventeen years the sources of my income have been writing and lecturing, but each year I have made more public speeches, without compensation and where I have paid my own traveling expenses, than I have where compensation was received. My speaking capacity has been large and I have made not only an income sufficient for my immediate needs, but have saved, on an average, something more than ten thousand dollars a year.

Willing to Lose to Serve County.

"In accepting the office which I now hold, I gave up the opportunity to add to my accumulations, for I do not expect to increase, during my term, the amount I have laid aside—that is, I am willing to forego what advantage I might derive from the acquiring of wealth in order to have the more the privilege of serving the country in this office during the coming four years. I will not call this a donation, but I do not believe that fair-minded people will ask it of me.

"Therefore, until I see some reason for changing my purpose I expect to lecture enough to bring in enough to pay my expenses, these lectures to be delivered during the time that other officials give to their vacations. In addition to supplementing my salary, I hope that my lectures do good—people who attend them would not do so if they did not think they received their money's worth, but I would be glad to spend my vacations resting instead of lecturing, if I could do so without sacrificing an amount I have laid away as a protection against old age."

Senator Bristow's resolution set out that from 1789 to 1797 Thomas Jefferson and Edmund Randolph held the office of the secretary of state at salaries of $3,500 a year; from 1797 to 1819 John Marshall; James Madison, James Monroe and John Quincy Adams served at $5,000; from 1819 to 1853 Henry Clay, Martin Van Buren, Daniel Webster, John C. Calhoun and James Buchanan served at $6,000; from 1853 to 1911 William H. Seward, James G. Blaine, Thomas F. Bayard, Walter Q. Gresham, Richard Olney,

ANGRY HUSBAND KILLS ALLEGED HOME WRECKER

Henry M'Clelland Shot Dead When Found by F. L. George in His House.

Savannah, Ga., July 15.—F. L. George entered the room of Henry J. McClellan, a boarder at his wife's home, this afternoon about 3 o'clock and with the words, "Get down on your knees and pray to your God, for I'm going to kill you right now," shot and mortally wounded McClellan, who died in less than an hour afterwards. He was shot in the body, the bullet passing close to his heart.

After shooting McClellan, George left the house and surrendered to a policeman. He accuses McClellan of undue intimacy with his wife, from whom he had been separated several weeks. He talked freely about the shooting after being locked up and expressed regret for his act. "But it just had to be," he said.

McClellan was the son of Mgs. J. Beck, of this city. Both men were employees of the streets and lanes department of the city. There were no eye-witnesses to the shooting.

Dr. Gwyn Quits the Churchman.

New York, July 15.—Announcement of the resignation of the Rev. Herbert B. Gwyn as editor of The Churchman, the New York weekly publication of the Protestant Episcopal church, was made today. The Rev. Dr. Milo H. Gates, a member of the council of advice said to be the paper's governing board, also resigned. The Rev. Charles W. Gilbert, secretary of the New York diocese social service commission, will take charge of the paper for the present. Mr. Gwyn plans to return to the pulpit.

No Sir, Jasper Smith Never Fell Like Beef, Nor Ran Like Rabbit

No woman ever knocked Jasper N. Smith, of the house-that-Jack-built fame, down in the mud and the mire; no woman ever made him fall like a beef and get up and run like a rabbit." That is, Jack says this.

Mrs. Sallie Alexander, of Henry county, 66 years of age, one of the witnesses in the Crawford murder trial before Auditor Anderson Tuesday, told a far different tale.

She said that on one occasion she had smote him with her own good right fist, and had laid Jesper Smith low. That thereupon Jasper Smith arose, and did two things, he ran like the devil, and he ran like a rabbit. Both of which Jasper N. Smith denies.

However, as fate would have it, Jasper Smith was not in court when Mrs. Sallie Alexander told of her prowess. But later, when informed of her testimony, he grew exceedingly angry in spirit.

Lying on his bed, with his shoes and collar off, and brandishing a huge fan, he listened in silence until the reporter had told the entire tale.

"Me—me run like a rabbit? Me run like the devil? huh—that woman is a liar of the first degree! Do you hear me young man?"

"Did she pull your hair, Mr. Smith?" was the next question.

"Huh—I didn't have any hair to pull. Why boy, that must have been thirty years ago. I had some dispute with her over the rent on the house which she was living in.

"She tried to hit me. O yes, she tried all right. She drew back her fist to hit me, and I just knocked the blow off. But as to her knocking me down, why sir, that is the biggest lie that I ever

C. F. von HERRMANN, Section Director.

John Sherman, John Hay and Elihu Root served for $8,000, and added: "During this long period of time no one of these eminent statesmen was compelled to neglect the duties of the office because of the meagerness of salary."

Move to Increase Pay.

"Whereas, The 'Great Commoner' now holding that office, Hon. William J. Bryan, has stated in the public press that the salary of $1,000 per month is not sufficient to enable him to live with comfort, and that because of the meagerness of the salary of $12,000 per annum, he is compelled to neglect the duties of his office and go upon the lecture platform in order to earn a living, and that, whereas, there are now pending before the department of state matters of the highest importance to the nation affecting the relations of our country with Mexico, Japan, England and other foreign countries that demand the most earnest, careful and continuous attention of the secretary of state; therefore, be it

"Resolved, That the president be requested, if not incompatible with the public interests, to advise the senate what would be a proper salary to enable the present secretary of state to live with comfort and to enable him to give his time to the discharge of his public duties, for which he is now being paid the sum of $1,000 per month, and be it further

"Resolved, That the president be respectfully requested to give this subject as prompt attention as his convenience will permit in order that congress may take immediate steps to relieve the country from the great loss which it suffers by being deprived of the services of the present secretary of state, though it is now paying for such services at the rate of $1,000 per month."

Bryan Wants No Increase.

Senator Shafroth, of Colorado, declared Secretary Bryan had assured him he did not desire an increase of salary.

Secretary Bryan's home in Washington is the old mansion of General John A. Logan, for which he pays $4,000 a year. Former Secretary Knox, who rented a house in diplomatic row on fashionable K street, paid $7,000 a year, though during his term of office he received but a salary of $8,000, because the salary of secretary of state was increased while he was a senator and was debarred from enjoying the increase by a constitutional provision.

The historians of Washington point out that many of Mr. Bryan's predecessors in comparatively recent years were wealthy. John Hays' house was one of the show places of Washington. Secretary Bryan has the use of certain horses and equipages which belong to the state department, but he often prefers to drive his own automobile.

ONE CHILD KILLED, ANOTHER MAY DIE

In Same Hour Horse Kills One and Mule Injures the Other—Robert Stewart Is Dead.

Two young boys were fatally injured yesterday at almost the same hour when they were kicked in the head by a horse and a mule. The eldest victim, Robert Stewart, aged 9, died almost instantly. The other, Jeffries Barryhill, aged 5, was carried to Grady hospital. He is not expected to survive.

The accidents occurred in different parts of the city, but almost at the same time. The dead child was the son of Mrs. Belle Stewart, of 63 Ella street. He was riding his father's horse along Stewart avenue near Wells street when the animal became frightened.

He was thrown from the saddle and as his body fell to the ground the animal's hoof struck him in the head, crushing the skull. He was dead when the ambulance arrived from Grady hospital. His form had been pitched directly over the horse's head.

The Barryhill child lives at 808 Marietta street. Shortly after noon he was playing in the front yard of his home, when a mule belonging to his father escaped from the horse lot and ran through the yard.

The boy was in the animal's path and before he could move the animal stepped upon him, inflicting a wide gash in the forehead just above the left eye. He was knocked unconscious and at Grady hospital, where he was rushed in an ambulance, surgeons say there is little hope for recovery.

BRANTLEY'S NAME WAS BLACKLISTED

few months. He told, or his letters did, of his strike-breaking activities in St. Louis, of an effort to aid former Congressman James E. Watson, of Indiana, politically, and of how well he knew former Senator Beveridge, of that state. He gave details of another visit to Maine and another effort to give political assistance to former Congressman Littlefield, of that state. He mentioned again former President Taft, the late Vice President Sherman, the late W. Van Cleave, of the National Association or Manufacturers, and other men prominently connected at one time or other with that organization.

The witness thought about $22,000 had been raised in Indiana for the Watson campaign and a letter read just before adjournment tonight told of "three millionaires" in the state one of whom was willing to spend $100,000 to defeat Watson. The letter did not identify the millionaires and the committee didn't ask who they were.

During the day Mulhall told of how he broke a strike of shoeworkers in St. Louis. He swore that $3,000 had been turned over to him by F. C. Schwedtman, secretary to Van Cleave, to pay to the strike leader to end the difficulty. Schwedtman, who was in the room, will be allowed to take the stand when Mulhall has finished.

Passages That Brought Smiles.

The day's voyage was not entirely monotonous, although members of the committee began to show the strain of the long hours they have spent in this investigation and the committee adjourned two hours earlier than usual. Many times in the course of the day there were passages that brought smiles to the members of the committee and the spectators. Mulhall himself, usually close-lipped and curt, caused many of the laughs and letters read particularly those from George L. Crockett, of Thomaston, Maine, were followed closely.

White County Bank.

Cleveland, Ga., July 15.—(Special.) The annual meeting of the stockholders of the White County bank was held yesterday afternoon. The bank has had a very prosperous year, 21 per cent net was made on the capital stock.

GRIGGS AND TREUTLEN FAVORED BY COMMITTEE

Creation of Atkinson and James Counties Turned Down After Hearing on Tuesday.

The committee on constitutional amendments Tuesday night agreed to recommend to the house for passage the amendments for the creation of Griggs and Treutlen counties. The committee declined to recommend the creation of Atkinson or James counties.

The committee began its hearings on these four counties early in the afternoon, and the hearings lasted through the entire afternoon and until 5 o'clock at night, being characterized at times by bitter fighting.

Numbers of residents and lawyers retained appeared for both sides in each instance, except in the case of Treutlen county, the hearing in favor of which was held last Thursday afternoon.

There were several large delegations present from the various counties affected, and the house chamber, where the committee met, was crowded to its capacity.

Three Countries Affected.

The creation of Griggs county affects Worth, Colquitt and Mitchell counties. In favor of Griggs statistics were produced showing that the new county will have a population of 12,320, taxable values of $2,746,225 and an area of 260 square miles. Doerun is the proposed county seat.

W. J. Bush, of Colquitt county; Mr. Way, of Moultrie, and others appeared advocating the creation of Griggs county. There was also strong opposition before the committee, Judge R. L. Shipp, of Moultrie; J. H. Tipton, of Sylvester, and others speaking. There was a delegation of 100 or more residents of Worth county present opposing the creation of Griggs. As a final shot before the committee a request was entered that the decision upon Griggs be withheld until the hearing on the creation of Hansell county could be had, since these two proposed counties in part affect the same territory.

Objections Are Offered.

When the hearing of the opposition against the creation of Treutlen county was called Mr. Geiger, of Mt. Vernon, who appeared on the scene at the last minute of the hearing in favor of Treutlen county last Thursday and had the decision postponed, again was on hand to offer objections as was also Mr. Folsom, of Mt. Vernon.

There was a formidable array of speakers and delegations present, both in the interest of and opposed to the creation of Atkinson county. Among those favoring this county were C. C. Moses, of Coweta; J. A. Cromartie, of Jeff Davis; Mark Wilcox, of Coffee, and others.

Backed by a delegation of seventy-five people from Willacoochee, Colonel J. W. Quincey, of Douglas; R. G. Dickerson, of Homerville, and J. P. Knight, of Berrien, opposed the new county.

After a warm contest before the committee the creation of James county went down in defeat on the fourth time in the last several years. Rufus Hutchins, of Rome, spoke in favor of the county, while Judge Ed Rudd, of Dublin, opposed it.

COMMITTEE VOTES DOWN STATE BOARD

the board, but their decision as to the return is to be final.

It was ordered that 300 copies of the bill be printed for distribution to members of the house.

The sub-committee of five included Akin, Stovall of Elbert, Sheppard, Cooper and Lipscomb. It became known early in the day that the sub-committee, while by no means in agreement among themselves, had determined to report a bill that was practically the Lipscomb bill, with the state board feature erased from it.

Lipscomb Did Not Agree.

As soon as the substitute bill was read by the secretary, Mr. Lipscomb took occasion to state that he did not consent to the striking out of the state board feature and that he did not agree to the report of the subcommittee. Other members of the subcommittee, Other members of the subcommittee, Dr. Stovall and Mr. Sheppard, also stated that they did not approve of the substitute bill as it stood. This left only Representatives Akin and Cooper, members of the subcommittee, who had not raised objection to their report.

Mr. Swift moved that the report of the subcommittee be disagreed to. There were then a number of confused motions offered looking to the consideration of other tax revision bills which were before the committee, and two bills which had never before been considered, one by Mr. Myrick and another by Mr. Beck, were offered.

As the discussion seemed to be leading to no definite conclusion, Mr. Garlington suggested that the salient features of tax revision should first be settled, such as whether the committee favored a state board of equalization or not, whether the power of the comptroller general to assess public service corporations should be interfered with, etc. On his motion, as amended by Mr. Sheppard, to take up first the question of a state board of equalizers, the entire debate of the afternoon hinged. The discussion was limited to fifteen minutes from each member desiring to be heard.

Swift Favors State Board.

Mr. Swift opened the debate in favor of a state board. He said that real tax revision did not mean an increase of taxes from the honest citizen, but rather a decrease. The bill reported by the sub-committee did not meet the situation. Tax equalization could not be accomplished without the machinery to do it with.

The legislature in 1890 had passed an act providing for county boards, which had been repealed by the succeeding legislature because it did not equalize among the counties and made inequalities more glaring than they had been before.

Mr. Jones, of Coweta, said that county equalizers without a state board to supervise and control them would not make must improvement on the present situation. He feared that some county boards would purposely keep assessments down so that they would not have to pay as much tax as other counties.

Sheppard's Substitute.

In speaking against a state board, Mr. Sheppard, of Sumter, offered as a substitute before the committee of five's report a bill of his own, which he said was the same, except that it gave the power of recommending the county boards to county commissioners instead of the grand jury, and made some other small changes.

One of the strongest arguments for the creation of a state board of equalizers was made by Mr. Wheatley, chairman of the committee on ways and means, who is ex-office member of ways and means. Mr. Wheatley cited specific instances showing the present glaring inequalities of tax returns among counties. Land in Rabun county was assessed at $2.89 per acre, while reports to the census enumerators showed values of $6.04. Screven land was assessed at $2.07 per acre, reported to the census enumerator at $12.96; Oglethorpe, assessed at $4.16, reported to the census enumerator at $17.43. These figures showed that Rabun, one of the poorest counties, was paying far more than its just proportion of taxes as compared with wealthier counties, such as Screven and Oglethorpe.

Taxpayers Perjure Themselves.

Mr. Wheatley summed up his disgust with the present system by saying:

"As a taxpayer, I have been purjuring myself, whenever I returned my property for tax. All the other taxpayers in the state have been doing the same thing. I, for one, am tired of it. That is all."

After the sense of the committee had been taken by the vote on Mr. Garlington's motion and was found to be against the creation of a state board, the motion was made the substitute offered by Mr. Sheppard should be reported by the house with the recommendation that it do pass.

Reported Bills Never Even Read.

The subcommittee's report had never been read and not a single member of the committee, except the author, knew exactly what it contained. But the mind of the majority appeared to have been made up, and they would not hear to postponement or further deliberation.

The result was that the ways and means committee reported to the house with the recommendation that it pass a tax revision bill which had never even been read in the committee.

MAYOR WILL RUSH WORK ON STREETS

Street Car Company Informs Woodward That Laying of Tracks on Ivy Street Will Begin Thursday.

That the Georgia Railway and Power company will start laying the tracks on Ivy street on Thursday was the assurance Superintendent Thomas K. Glenn gave to Mayor Woodward following a conference Tuesday morning.

The mayor called County Commissioner Shelby Smith and S. B. Turman to confer with him and Captain R. M. Clayton, of the city construction department, on the progress of the work on Ivy, West Peachtree, Georgia avenue and Boulevard streets. Mayor Woodward declared that too many streets were being torn up in the city and that complaints have been made to him that little progress had been made.

Car Tracks Not Down.

As was stated in the Marietta street some months ago, the county is prevented from starting the Ivy street paving because the car tracks have not been put down. However, the railway company has declared that it is ready to go to work just as soon as the city gives the word. Similar conditions are reported on Georgia avenue. On that proposition the excuse is given that the street car company is waiting for the sixth to settle in the fills made necessary to give the street a uniform grade.

When caused Mayor Woodward to call the conference and force the railway company and the county and city officials to make up a definite program was the resolution passed up by the street committee authorizing Captain Clayton to purchase material for the West Peachtree street regrading.

Would Work Hardship.

The mayor threatened to hold up the resolution until the Ivy street job is completed. He said that to have both streets torn up and impassable at the same time would congest Peachtree street and would work a hardship on the people living on the north side.

Commissioner Smith, of the county commissioners, informed the mayor that the paving could be started just as soon as the railway company gets a start. Upon the assurance that the railway company will start Thursday morning, Mayor Woodward agreed to approve the West Peachtree resolution for the purchase of material. The city will start on that thoroughfare within a few days.

Paving of Georgia avenue will commence in September. This was assured by the county commissioners.

Mayor Woodward declared he will take steps to urge the hastening of the West Mitchell street project.

TURKEY TROT IS GAIT TO HELL, SAYS PARSON

Columbus, Ga., July 15.—(Special.)—"Summer Sins and the Turkey Trot Gait to Hell" was the subject of a powerful sermon delivered by Dr. A. E. Williams, presiding elder of the Columbus Methodist district, at St. Luke's Methodist church to a large congregation. The "Turkey Trot" and other animal dances were roundly denounced. General moral laxity in the summer season was condemned. Such bowing through the use of automobiles, flocking off to summer resorts, etc., was mentioned and criticised. The sermon has been the subject of much comment here. It was editorially commended by the Columbus afternoon paper.

CONVICTED PREACHER GRANTED NEW TRIAL

Fort Smith, Ark., July 15.—Marion Capps, a preacher convicted of burning his three children to death, has been granted a ne wtrial by the supreme court, according to information received here. The jury's failure to state the degree of murder of which Capps was guilty and the alleged affidavits of his 15-year-old daughter, Bertha, and hi 12-year-old son, Ellis, that they had testified falsely against him at his trial were stated as the grounds for granting the next trial. The testimony of the children convicted their father.

BUSINESS WOMEN WILL HAVE HOTEL

Atlanta Y. W. C. A. Work Will Be Broadened by A. G. Rhodes.

Right back of the new hotel Ansley and in one of the most central localities in Atlanta, the business women of Atlanta will have their own hotel, their own reading room, recreation room, a place they can call their own. This becomes possible through an arrangement which the management of the Young Women's Christian association have made with Mr. A. G. Rhodes, the owner of the property, who has generously contributed to the movement.

The news comes through Mrs. Harry Dewar just prior to her departure for Europe and will bring a universal relief to the innumerable young women of Atlanta who have enjoyed the splendid work the Young Women's Christian association and who are looking forward to the reorganization, broadening and vitalizing of the Atlanta work.

Since the Atlanta branch of the Young Women's Christian association gave up their quarters in the Emery-Steiner building the central bureau has had place in the Wesley Memorial building, but in the acquisition of the Rhodes property on Ellis street the headquarters will be moved there.

Plans are on foot by which a domestic science teacher will be established in the building, so that members of the association living in the new building will have the opportunity of studying that important branch. The rooms are being made comfortable and inviting and will soon be made ready for occupancy. Classes in music, handicrafts and similar studies will be centered in the new building.

The home of the Young Women's Christan association will still continue its usefulness on Baker street

Mrs. Harry Dewar, who is chairman of the publicity committee of the association, stated just prior to her departure that announcement will soon be made of the program of the Y. W. C. A. work for the year.

Mrs. Dewar states that the establishment of the boarding home comes as the most frequently demanded department for Atlanta's business women and for the younger element of women and girls who, coming to Atlanta to do their first work, desire comfortable home in a central locality and a home at the same time under the protecting auspices which the Young Woman's Christian association represents wherever it is.

Miss Sarah Conner, of Atlanta, who is one of the most efficient of the women workers for the welfare of the Y. W. C. A., is in New York at present. While taking a special course at Columbia university she is investigating the various departments of the Young Woman's Christian association there with a view to bringing an inspiring message back to the Atlanta branch of the work.

EUROPE PRESSES UNITED STATES

To Declare Intentions in Regard to Chaotic Conditions in Mexico—Situation Is Intolerable for Foreigners.

Washington, July 16.—Administration officials admitted tonight that the situation in Mexico and diplomatic inquiries over Europe as to what the attitude of this country would be toward its neighbor on the south were engaging their deepest attention.

Secretary Bryan had a two-hour conference with President Wilson today and the foremost subject before them was the Mexican problem. Earlier in the day it had been discussed at length at the cabinet meeting.

It is stated that European diplomats stationed in Mexico City have sent to their respective governments identical notes, in which they declare that the position taken by the United States with reference to Mexico is contributing to revolutionary conditions and suggesting that the representatives at Washington of the respective European countries be instructed to request recognition or that the United States assume responsibility for affairs here.

Mr. Bryan declined to say what the policy of the United States government would be toward any European representations, but intimated that a pronouncement on the situation might be expected in a short time.

It is known that the administration officials have been continuously opposed to recognition of the Huerta government until elections were held and it has frequently been stated informally that recognition would not be extended until the constitutional machinery in Mexico had been set in motion again to elect a new president to succeed the provisional president now acting.

It is believed that in the meantime every effort will be made to indicate to the Mexican people that the United States government expects protection of its interests through the present government.

COUNTY MAKES KICK ON CITY MATERIAL

The county commissioners have made formal complaint to the sewer committee against the character of material the city is furnishing for the construction of the Butler street sewer.

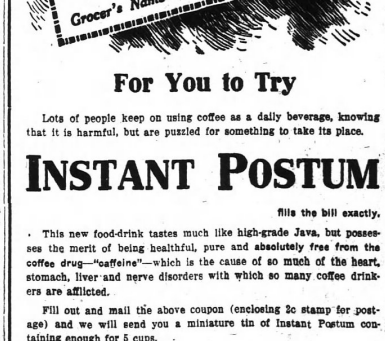
Chairman Shelby Smith appeared before the committee Tuesday afternoon and made the statement that the rubble stone furnished by the city was delaying the work. He made the suggestion that the city furnish crushed stone for the remainder of the job.

Contracts which the city have with the quarries specify rubble stone, and formally to captain R. M. Clayton they decline to change the contract and furnish crushed stone instead.

The city has secured two crushers and will start blasting rock, but it will be for other jobs.

Lane Gives Birthday Party.

Washington, July 16.—In celebration of the forty-ninth anniversary of his birth, Secretary Lane, assisted by Mrs. Lane, held a reception today in the great court of the interior department for the 4,000 employees of the department. The "birthday party" was attended by hundreds of persons prominent in the social and political life of the capital.



For You to Try

Lots of people keep on using coffee as a daily beverage, knowing that it is harmful, but are puzzled for something to take its place.

INSTANT POSTUM

fills the bill exactly.

This new food-drink tastes much like high-grade Java, but possesses the merit of being healthful, pure and absolutely free from the coffee drug—"caffeine"—which is the cause of so much of the heart, stomach, liver and nerve disorders with which so many coffee drinkers are afflicted.

Fill out and mail the above coupon (enclosing 2c stamp for postage) and we will send you a miniature tin of Instant Postum containing enough for 5 cups.

Postum comes in two forms.

Regular Postum (must be boiled).

Instant Postum doesn't require boiling, but is prepared instantly by stirring a level teaspoonful in an ordinary cup of hot water, which makes it right for most persons.

A big cup requires more and some people who like strong things put in a heaping spoonful and temper it with a large supply of cream.

Experiment until you know the amount that pleases your palate and have it served that way in the future.

EXPERT TO PROBE MILK CONDITIONS

Survey by Dr. Charles North, New York City Sanitarian, Is Proposed at Chamber of Commerce Luncheon.

Searching investigation of Atlanta's milk situation by an expert in sanitary affairs was proposed at the chamber of commerce milk committee luncheon yesterday at the Piedmont hotel. By the warm response the suggestion received from the score of advisory board members of the chamber who were present it is believed that the funds necessary for the survey will soon be raised and the investigation begun.

Dr. S. A. Visanska, chairman of the special milk investigating committee, presented the detailed committee report, proposing the survey and recommending Dr. Charles E. North, sanitarian of New York city, to prosecute the work in Atlanta.

"From our investigation of the past few months the committee believes that such an investigation would serve both to improve the milk conditions generally and awaken the public to the vital importance of this question in the life of the city," said Dr. Visanska.

"This is our principle recommendation, that Dr. North be brought to Atlanta to make a detailed report, but we would also recommend that the investigation be aided in every way by the chamber of commerce members in order that the widest publicity may be given to the need of better conditions."

Dr. Funke Also Proposed.

While it is believed by chamber of commerce members that such an investigation, followed by a detailed report of conditions, will be made in the near future, there is some doubt as to whether or not Dr. North will be the one selected.

It was proposed by Dr. Edgar Paullin, president of the Fulton County Medical society, that the investigation be made by an Atlanta man, Dr. John Funke, who, as chairman of the milk commission of the Fulton county society, has already been engaged in investigation of milk conditions.

"We can get as good a survey of the milk situation from a man like Dr. Funke, who is living among us, as we can from a New York expert," said Dr. Paullin.

The question will be taken up at meetings of the special committee and of the chamber of commerce directors within the next few weeks with a view of arranging for the survey. V. H. Kriegshaber proposed at the luncheon that active steps be taken at once to raise the funds necessary to bring Dr. North to Atlanta for the investigation.

Dr. Peter F. Bahnsen, state veterinarian, made an interesting address before the luncheon gathering, telling of the fight that has been made against tubercular cows in the effort to give the people of Georgia pure milk. He declared that while conditions have been improved, there are many tubercular cattle existing in the state right now, endangering the lives of people who drink milk.

Those present at the luncheon Tuesday were Wilmer L. Moore, president of the chamber of commerce; Walter G. Cooper, secretary; J. A. Hobson, V. H. Kriegshaber, W. J. Lowenstein, J. M. Van Harlingen, Edgar Watkins, Dr. Visanska, Dr. Bahnsen, J. T. Holleman, Dr. E. L. Connally, J. M. B. Hoxsey, Dr. L. O. Bricker, H. A. Maier, Dr. Edgar Paullin, W. D. Paden, Paul Norcross, Dr. Funke and M. M. Davies.

MINIMUM BALE FIXED AT COTTON CONFERENCE

North Georgia Cotton Buyers and Manufacturers Announce Strict Regulations.

The North Georgia Cotton Buyers and Manufactures' association meeting in Atlanta Tuesday at Hotel Ansley was attended by fifty or more representative men in the several lines.

The meeting was called to order by President J. D. Moss, of Athens, and the association at once got down to business. The principal work before the body was the standardizing of cotton bales and the penalization of same. After much discussion on these features by members from all sections of the state and from a few in northeast Alabama, it was decided that every bale of cotton bought by the members must not weigh less than 400 pounds, and bales weighing less will be penalized 50 cents each. This was made necessary for the compresses to get the bales to the proper density.

It was further decided that all bales must not measure more than 27 by 54 inches. All gins having gin boxes larger than this will be asked to reduce to the required size. The penalization for bales over this size was fixed at $1 each. The request of requiring the railroads to put the initial and number of car on each bill of lading was thoroughly discussed, but no definite action taken because it was not found practicable in all cases, but it will be requested whenever and wherever possible. The meeting was a most profitable one, so said all of the very much interested members who were present.

The other officers of the association present were C. B. Howard, of Atlanta, secretary, and the following members of the executive committee: J. T. Jennings, Atlanta; W. O. Jones, Riberton; C. V. Truitt, LaGrange; C. W. Smith, Cedartown, and W. M. Harris, Hampton.

Will Dispose of Grace Property.

J. A. Branch, recently associated in the defense of Mrs. Daisy E. Grace, who was acquitted when tried on the charge of shooting and maiming her husband, has been given power of attorney to sell her Atlanta property, which is said to comprise small dwellings and lots in different sections of Atlanta. Just what property is likely to be sold is not specified in the instrument authorizing the sale of her Atlanta holdings.

INSURANCE MEN GATHER

Members of Exchange Enjoy Luncheon at Ansley Hotel.

The Atlanta Insurance exchange held its regular monthly meeting at the Hotel Ansley Tuesday at noon while enjoying luncheon.

Every one of the principal agencies was represented by one or more members of the agency. Routine business only was transacted looking to the general good of every member of the exchange. President P. W. Cole presided. The other officers present were Rutherford Lipscomb, vice president, and Coke Davis, secretary. There were about thirty-five present.

FAIR WEATHER TODAY PROMISES FORECASTER

Fair weather is predicted for today according to the forecast of the Atlanta branch of the United States weather bureau. Indications point to a rise in temperature.

URGES GEORGIA EXHIBIT AT SAN FRANCISCO SHOW

T. Sambola Jones Tells Legislators Why Adequate Appropriation Should Be Made.

T. Sambola Jones, of Louisiana, commissioner-at-large from the United States of the Panama-Pacific exposition to be held at San Francisco, Cal., in 1915, addressed the general assembly of Georgia Tuesday morning extolling the merits of the great exposition and of the Panama canal and urging that a proper showing be made by the state of Georgia.

Mr. Jones emphasized the fact that the south would be the main recipient of any good that may and will be derived by the completion of the Panama canal and stated that every southern state would answer to the roll call in 1915 by an adequate exhibition of their products, and that Georgia by virtue of her high rank among the states should have an exhibition which would be representative of her natural resources.

"Poverty is no crime, but the inertness of a state in forwarding its ends is a horrible crime and while I realize the defective system of taxation in Georgia, this is no reason why this grand stats should not be represented at the 1915 exposition," he said.

FIRST GENERAL BILL PASSES STATE SENATE

Committee Will Grant Another Hearing on Measure Providing for Reading Bible in Schools.

The first general bill of the year was passed in the senate Wednesday morning when the measure of Senator Jones, of the thirty-ninth district, requiring the preferment in writing of charges made against members of county school boards before they can be summarily dismissed, was put through without a dissenting vote.

The house resolution of Mr. Miller, of Bibb, inviting Senator Hoke Smith to address the general assembly July 18, at 12 o'clock, was passed in the senate.

Opposition to the bill requiring the reading of the Bible in the public schools of the state took definite form Tuesday when the bill was brought up for its passage, but, upon motion of Senator Foster, chairman of the education committee, was referred to that committee in order to allow those opposed to the measure an opportunity of presenting their arguments.

Labor Measures Get Setback.

Two labor measures of Senator Kea, of the sixteenth, indorsed by the committee on commerce and labor and by Commissioner H. M. Stanley, were given serious setbacks when one was tabled and the other recommitted. The bill requiring manufacturers to give the commissioner of commerce and labor any information requested by him concerning their plants or employees, was recommitted. The measure designating where the seats of females shall be placed in factories was tabled.

The bill of Senator Searcy, introduced at the request of temperance leaders, and providing for the enforcement of the Webb law in Georgia, was discussed pro and con before the temperance committee of the senate, and action was finally deferred until the committee should meet Thursday morning at 10 o'clock.

The medical practice bill which had been favorably reported by the senate committee on hygiene and sanitation, will go back to that committee for a second hearing at 9 o'clock this morning, and all concerned in the matter are requested by the chairman of the committee, Senator C. H. Richardson, to be present in the senate chamber at that time.

Favorable Report Given.

The bill of Senator Hale, of the thirty-fifth, requiring a written guarantee on all packages or sacks of melon, vegetable or other garden seeds, was reported favorably by the agricultural committee. This committee also reported favorably upon the bill exempting from taxation farm products, including cotton, for twelve months.

After hearing from a delegation of fertilizer men composed of R. F. Maddox, H. C. Fisher, Hugh Gordon, J. R. Padgett, W. H. Pinson, P. T. Townsend and L. W. Reeves, the committee on agriculture reported that the bill requiring that the formula of all fertilizers be printed on the sacks or boxes of fertilizer, do not pass. The bill of Senator Elkins, regulating the seizure of seins, nets and traps in the waters of this state, was reported with the recommendation that the same do not pass.

ALBYN HAYNES NAMED ON TEXAS STATE BOARD

Former Atlanta Man Appointed Member of Fire Insurance Commission.

The friends of Albyn H. Haynes, of Austin, Texas, formerly of Atlanta, will be interested to know that he has been appointed the third member of the state fire insurance commission of Texas, and that the Texas papers, in commenting on the appointment, are most complimentary to Mr. Haynes' ability.

The San Antonio Express says: "Mr. Haynes' commissionship is only temporary, as he is an expert to the commission and will draw a larger salary as such than is paid to the commissioners. He has accepted only for the present, until the governor can secure a third man who comes up to the requirements. Mr. Haynes has been chief clerk to the insurance board, and is recognized as one of the best posted insurance men in Texas, but he can draw more pay as an expert than as a state official. He is a native of Georgia, but makes Travis county his home.

"While Mr. Haynes has been acting as chief clerk and expert to the commission, it is not improbable that he will be made actuary of the new commission with a handsome increase in salary. He could not afford to remain commissioner. If he would accept the place permanently the governor could not get a better man."

DR. STARNES TO GIVE CONCERT ON THURSDAY

A special free concert will be given Thursday evening at the Auditorium-Armory by Dr. Percy J. Starnes under the auspices of the Atlanta Musical association.

The program, which will be one of the most beautiful ever arranged for Atlanta music lovers, will consist of a classical organ recital in which selections from Mendelssohn, Liszt and Haydn will predominate.

The Thursday evening concert, which in no way interferes with the regular Sunday concerts, will be followed at a date to be announced later by another special concert at which Dr. Starnes will play the great "Symphonie Pathetique" of Tschaikowsky in its entirety.

Dr. Starnes leaves Atlanta in the early fall, and this will be one of the last opportunities local music lovers will have of hearing him preside at the great organ.

At the concert Thursday evening symphony music will make up most of the program.

Fatal Accident on Nebraska.

Boston, July 15.—Henry A. Agena, an ordinary seaman, was fatally scalded and James Leary, a first-class electrician, was badly injured when a steam valve blew out today in the dynamo room of the battleship Nebraska, in the dry dock at the Charleston navy yard. Agena was working as an electrician's helper with Leary when the accident occurred and was immediately removed to the United States naval hospital at Chelsea. He died there later.

WIFE, SEPARATED, COMES TO AID OF STRICKEN HUSBAND

Penniless and broken in health and spirit, a man of 50 years lay upon his back in the Wesley Memorial hospital. He had seen days of prosperity, but with the passing of time they had gone forever. His business had failed and he, a bankrupt, had aged and broken. His name is D. D. McCall—known to many Atlantans as the head of the Georgia Motor Car company, which failed about a year ago.

As he lay in the hospital McCall felt the thrill of a touch long held dear, but which he thought had also gone forever. His wife, from whom he had been separated for more than two years, hearing of his desperate illness, rushed to her husband's aid. That was but a few days ago, and since then she has watched night after night at his bedside, though without funds herself, and without other friends to aid or sympathize—only the love of former years to spur her to sacrifice.

Both are now without funds, in spite of the many friends they had in days of prosperity, but it is hoped that this picture of a wife's all-sacrificing love may reach one of their former friends, who will aid the now unfortunate pair in their sad reverse.

BIG SHOE FACTORY NOW BEING ERECTED BY BUFORD CONCERN

Buford, Ga., July 15.—(Special.)—The Bona Allen company, of Buford, is constructing a shoe factory, to be run in connection with their other large industries located at Buford. This enterprising concern tans all its own leather for its horse collar factory, which is the largest in the world, and also for the harness department, and intends to increase the capacity of the tannery 250 hides more per day. In order to take care of the shoe factory. The present capacity is 400 hides per day. They also utilize the by-products of the offal of the tannery in the extensive manufacture of glue.

Joseph Conway, an expert tanner, formerly of New York and Boston, has been brought to Buford to help develop the tanning of calf skins. Mr. Conway is an expert in his line, and is known throughout the United States as an experienced tanner of shoe leather. Mr. Conway has associated with him Mr. Jefferson, of Hartford, Conn., another well-known tanner. The company has brought from Cincinnati Leslie B. Joseph, an expert shoe manufacturer, who is undertaking the manufacturing end of their shoe factory. It is the intention of the Bona Allen company to develop the hands in the locality, only bringing from different places a few experienced operatives for each department, and building an organization around them. In order to perfect a good organization this way it is their intention to start in with a capacity of 300 pairs per day. As soon as the unskilled help has become proficient the capacity will be increased proportionately.

The Bona Allen company not alone manufacturers its sole leather and calf skins for different plants, but also manufacturers all cases for packing and shipping. Within a short time the company will have a great factory in full operation.

Schlitz Brown Bottle Claims Authenticated

by Dr. Robert Wahl, President of the Wahl-Henius Institute of Fermentology. We reprint from his letter.

"Our observations, extending over the last twenty-five years, have convinced us beyond a doubt that exposure of beer to light has a very detrimental influence on its quality generally, but especially upon the flavor of the beer.

We have tested beers repeatedly in this direction, placing the bottles into direct sunlight, and testing the same after one, two, three and five minutes exposure, found that the beer with three and five minutes exposure became undrinkable, on account of the peculiar odor developed.

The detrimental effect of light upon beer can be successfully counteracted by the employment of brown or dark colored glass bottles, and such bottles are therefore recommendable."

He quotes famous authorities to corroborate his opinion

Authorities on the subject of the detrimental influence of light on beer are:

C. Lintner, Lehrbuch der Bierbrauerei 1875, S. 343.
Beck, Zeitschrift für das gesamte Brauwesen, 1882, S. 370.
V Huth Der Bierbrauer 1876, S. 127.
Ney, Allg. Zeitschr. f. Bierbr. u. Malzfabr., 1878, S. 273

Light cannot harm Schlitz in Brown Bottles. It is made pure and then kept pure.

TAX FACTS AND SCHOOL FACTS.

The dual agitation for the prompt payment of the country school teachers of Georgia and for tax revision makes pertinent the citation of a few startling facts touching both these issues. In 1912, for instance, in round numbers the increase in state tax values over the preceding year was $26,000,000. Of that increase one county out of 148 in Georgia, Fulton county, provided more than half. Analysis would probably disclose that the remainder of the city counties, so-called, supplied proportionately, an overwhelming percentage of the remainder of the increase.

Now it is a significant coincidence that these identical city counties support their own school systems. You never hear of a city school teacher being one day, much less six or eight months, in arrears for her pay. It is true that the schools of Atlanta and other Georgia municipalities draw a percentage from the general state school fund. But if their percentage is belated the teacher is not penalized. The city provides the funds and the teacher the money due without waiting a day.

It is proposed now, under the suggestion of Governor Slaton, to catch up with the disgraceful arrearages to country school teachers by levying a special tax of one mill for one year and half a mill for the year succeeding, when the special tax would automatically expire. Note, now, the connection: Fulton and most of the other city counties contribute the larger part of the increase to tax values every year. In the face of the proposition to temporarily increase the tax rate, YOU DO NOT HEAR A WORD OF PROTEST FROM THESE CITY COUNTIES THAT ALREADY ARE MEASURING UP WITH TOLERABLE FIDELITY TO THEIR STATE OBLIGATIONS, AND THAT, ABOVE ALL, CONDUCT THEIR SCHOOL SYSTEMS WITHOUT BEING HANDICAPPED BY THE WRETCHED FISCAL POVERTY OF THE STATE. THE TEMPORARY INCREASE OF THE TAX RATE WOULD ONLY INDIRECTLY BENEFIT THE CITY COUNTIES. IT WOULD BE THE SALVATION OF THE COUNTRY COUNTIES, FROM THE EDUCATIONAL STANDPOINT.

It occurs to The Constitution that these city counties, cheerfully paying their share of the state's burden and in a sense independent of the state's aid, set a splendid example to all Georgia. They are willing, for the honor of the commonwealth and for that esprit de corps which should rule all Georgians, to take on the extra taxation. In view of their attitude it is incomprehensible how objection should be raised from any other source, especially from those sources wholly dependent upon the state for financing their educational facilities.

Relevant to this subject is an article published elsewhere on this page. It will be seen that the legislative committee of the county teachers make strong protest against the diversion of funds set aside by the constitution and the law for school uses, to other purposes. The same theme is the keynote of the card from H. H. Stone, president of the Newton county board of education.

So atrocious is the fiscal system of the great and wealthy state of Georgia that it has become imperative to violate the constitution and employ funds intended for the schools in order to keep the civil establishment going and to meet appropriations made by successive legislatures.

President Stone's communication significantly shows the creeping dimensions of the state deficit and the corresponding growth of the indefensible injustice to the teachers. In June, 1908, 30 per cent of the school fund had been paid. In June of this year the proportion of the fund paid had dwindled to nothing. The country school teachers have been made the goat for the lack of courage and statesmanship to set Georgia's financial house in order.

Viewing these facts, it is impossible to understand how anyone can have the hardihood to oppose the projected special tax levy; or the hardihood to oppose such a tax revision as will place the finances of a tremendously rich state upon a business basis.

As it is now any one so minded could get out an injunction against the illegal diversion of funds, the fruit of Georgia's makeshift policy. Can any member of the legislature go home with a clear conscience, leaving this scandalous condition uncorrected?

WHAT ABOUT MEXICO?

It is reported that European countries are making inquiry as to the intentions of this government regarding the condition of chaos that prevails in Mexico. Complaint is made that the lives and property of foreigners are threatened, and that there seems to be no definite recourse. There is even talk of the possibility of European intervention, despite the Monroe doctrine, unless the United States shows willingness or ability to cope with the situation.

With respect to the undoubted atrocities being practiced in Mexico, and the anxiety of Europe over them, America might consistently retort with the old adage about the "pot and the kettle." The disorder, pillage and murder in Mexico cannot hold a candle to the saturnalia turned loose in the Balkans, but at which Europe looks on with cynical complacence. Not even under Turkish rule were there more massacres, or conditions more despicable and unspeakable, than at present exist in the Balkans. It is as though the Bulgarians had reverted to barbarism, or even worse than barbarism, in their headlong recklessness of established conventions of war. The Greeks are preserving a manly program. The Bulgarians have run insane with blood-lust and surrender to the most carnal and bestial of instincts. And Europe, which has the power to quell these ghastly conditions, is quietly waiting for the conflict to "exhaust itself."

That glaring inconsistency does not, however, relieve the United States from its responsibilities with regard to Mexico. The excited rebels and the desperate federals are looting and attacking right and left. The Monroe doctrine, to which our own nation is irrevocably committed, enjoins any foreign nation from interfering. Simultaneously it puts the responsibility for the preservation of life and property on America. Admittedly, the situation is a difficult one, but it is one the meeting of which cannot long be postponed.

What is to be the outcome is a matter of doubt. Any policy is a dangerous policy. We do not court an expensive and protracted guerrilla warfare with Mexico. On the other hand, we do not court complications growing out of a foreign violation of the Monroe doctrine. The problem is one for cool statesmanship and not foolish or bragging jingoism.

EXCELLENT BILLS.

A law against "blue sky" concerns, an inheritance tax law and a highway commission law will be on the statute books of Georgia in a few weeks, if the house of representatives follows the recommendations of one of its general judiciary committee, which has aready reported the first two bills favorably, and will shortly work out and report a bill providing for a highway commission.

The inheritance tax provides for a tax of 1 per cent on all inheritances of $5,000 and over on amounts descending to direct relations. On collateral inheritances and deeds or gifts to corporations or others the tax is to be 5 per cent flat. There was much sentiment in the committee in favor of a graduated tax, but some members feared it would be declared unconstitutional. As it is, the tax proposed is thoroughly equitable in principle. An inheritance tax is the fairest of all. It works no hardship on the builder up of the estate, since it is collected after death. And it works no hardship on the inheritors, since the amount is deducted from what is virtually a gift. Additionally, society receives a slight return from the wealth piled up by its collective activities. Most states of the union have taken advantage of this form of revenue-raising.

The "blue sky" law was introduced at the instance of the Atlanta Chamber of Commerce. It is estimated it will save the people of Georgia $5,000,000 a year which they now fritter away in tribute to wildcat and irresponsible concerns. The wonder is that thoughtful legislators have let Georgia go so long without protection from this particular species of vampires.

An obvious need in Georgia is a state highway commission. The state has made splendid progress in road-building, since the enacting of the new convict law. But there has been a decided lack of uniformity, and a drag on advancement because of lack of co-ordination between counties and sections. This element the new bill will provide, and it should place Georgia in the van of the road-building states of the nation.

A Summer Sleeta.

Grassy couch 'neath shady trees where cool winds love to play,
And hear the ice a-clinking in the glorious julep-glass;
The world-procession leaves me, but little do I care;
I mark the green glow of the mint that crowns the julep there.

(Life of toil and trouble,
And a toiler pays the price:
But the julep holds the bright glass,
"Clink!" goes the ice.)

I pity sweltering senators: In Washington they stand
Where never blows a cool wind from the eternal tariff land;
And since they may not walk again these summer-scented ways,
I drink their healths in juleps through all the juicy days!

(Oh, life is toil and trouble
And the toiler pays the price:
Green glows the mint now,
"Clink!" goes the ice.)

Blow, wind of summer, as brisk as you please, you're the uplift'n' Prosperity Breeze! You waft o'er the mountain, the valley and plain a vision of fields that are yellow with grain; and like ocean-billows the cotton-waves white scatter dollars like shells, in our wondering sight! Barns, housing plenty, you bring to our view—the blades of the corn, cooled and strengthened by you. Blow brisk as the loved wind from over the seas, for you're the uplift'n' Prosperity Breeze.

Poet's Skull as Watch Charm.

There is a story of a minor poet who purchased the pen with which Byron wrote numerous stanzas of "Childe Harold," but finding that he got no inspiration from it he sold it for a trifle. But here's a story of the weirdest relic of all: "It is guarded with care by an Englishman of note and consists of a part of the charred skull of the poet, Shelley, which he wears in a small locket attached to a chain 'round his neck!"

With all these free barbecues what does the Georgia legislature know about the high cost of living?

In one week at the summer white house President Wilson gained twelve pounds. A certain ex-president and college professor should studiously avoid that neck o' the woods.

Think of the havoc one Wolf of Wall Street has made among the innocent, unsuspecting lambs.

Mr. Bryan's Commoner is to be a monthly. That's good. Now let 'em make The Congressional Record a yearly.

Sorry to note the inconsistency of the secretary of state, who preaches peace and straightway goes on a six weeks' lecture tour.

A Story of the Moment

By WALT MASON, The Famous Prose Poet

THE LOST ART.

(Copyright, 1913, for The Constitution.)

"It seems a pity that conversation is a lost art," remarked the retired merchant. "People nowadays never talk of anything but the crops and the weather and the political situation. In the grand old days we read about brilliant dialogue was the regular thing whenever men and women assembled."

"I suppose you got your information from some doggone historical novel," said the hotel keeper. "The novelists would like to have us believe that the people who lived two or three hundred years ago were all so witty they couldn't see straight. They fired scintillating badinage at each other for hours at a stretch. If they really were that sort of people they must have been great bores. If there's any chump on earth who gives me a remittent pain in the thorax, it is the one who is always trying to say something sparkling.

"It's all right to say something funny once in a while, if you're sure it's funny before you say it, but if you keep on trying to be clever you'll notice after a while that people quit inviting you to their candy pullings and barn raisings, and you find yourself so lonesome you'll have to hire a companion, so you'll have somebody who'll stand for your wittisisms.

"We have more sense now than they had in the days of Talleyrand and those professional wits who have gone down into history. That man Talleyrand used to be awake at nights thinking up cute things to say. And he never sprung one of them without making an enemy, and when he died there wasn't a man anywhere who could undertake to see that his grave was kept green without being paid in advance. If he was at a dinner, people were afraid to discuss safe and sane topics, like cholera and old Tilley would make them ridiculous by saying something alecky; so in self-defense they all tried to be witty, and the result must have been maddening. Try to imagine two or thirty people all trying to be brilliant at once.

"But it's a mistake to suppose that the people in those days made conversation their life work. They were far more stupid when they got together than a bunch of moderns, for they had nothing to talk about. There were no newspapers, and if there had been, mighty few people could have read them. You can't have enlightening conversation without newspapers. If you depend upon last year's almanack for your raw material your discourse is going to be too tedious for any good use.

"The kind of conversation that knocks 'em kicking is the kind that is not premeditated. It's just plain substantial talk. Three or four guests of this hotel had breakfast at the same table with me this morning. They were average citizens of the United States, and I don't suppose any of them gets off a sparkling bon mot once in five years. But they talked horse sense to such a degree that I was proud of them. One had been making an auto tour of the middle west and he was full of useful information about the condition of the crops. It was a treat to hear that man talking of the probable yield of corn this year. Another was from California, and he talked for half an hour about the causes that led up to the alien land legislation. He held us all spellbound, and I was sorry when he choked on a piece of fish and had to quit. Then there was a stranger who had been in the south making a study of razor-backed hogs. He will submit his findings to the agricultural department at Washington. I was informed until that man began sor-backed hogs are.

"That half hour at the breakfast table was a real refreshment to me, and I've been thinking over what I heard ever since. There wasn't one remark that would have been useful to the comic papers. Just suppose those gents had started in saying brilliant things to each other! I'd have been pouring coffee down the backs of their necks in three minutes and there would have been a rough house. The art of conversation is in better shape now than it ever was, dogone it, for we talk like men, and not like monkeys."

CABARETS.

By GEORGE FITCH, Author of "At Good Old Siwash."

(Copyright, 1913, for The Constitution.)

A cabaret is one of the importations from France which, like the Statue of Liberty, is a party in favor of prohibitive tariff. It consists of a restaurant afflicted with both food and vaudeville. Moreover, both must be consumed at the same time.

The cabaret originated in Paris, and is said to have been invented because of the vast amount of time wasted by Parisians in stepping around to the stage door to get acquainted with the performers. The cabaret show is a perambulating vaudeville in which the artiste may begin her stunt on the stage, but is just as likely as not to finish it in the lap of a dignified and startled old gentleman in the rear of the restaurant.

The cabaret show gained great fame because of its informality and sociability. An ounce of dignity would run a cabaret show for several thousand years and nothing could be more sociable than a dinner table with four kinds of wine and a Parisian dancer on it. For many years it was the sacred duty of the American tourist to visit a cabaret in Paris, and the cloak and suit buyer who had not had his memory developed upon by a beautiful young lady Tangoist during the soup course in a Paris cafe was considered too green for good company.

A few years ago the cabaret show was transplanted to New York, where it is more luxuriantly and proved a great boon to a large number of metropolitan citizens who were slowly starving to death for the want of sufficient music to enable them to masticate their food. It is now possible to buy in New York for two dollars a nine-course vaudeville entertainment accompanied by food. With a little practice one can become very skillful in devouring these dances and can turkey trot a steak or puppy-snuggle an oyster with great deftness. America contains few more startling sights than that of a room full of well-dressed citizens looping their soup to the strains of a Tango tune while ever and anon an exquisitely painted entertainer flits down the aisle and hurdles a waiter.

"An ounce of dignity would run a cabaret show for several thousand years."

Some critics of the cabaret show insist that it is popular because it helps the public to endure the restaurant meals—while others declare that the meals deaden the audience to the terror of the performance. However, the cabaret has spread more rapidly than the dandelion and seems to be as hard to eradicate.

The World's Mysteries

DID WASHINGTON CUT THE CHERRY TREE?

One of the prettiest little stories told regarding George Washington is this incident connected with the Cherry Tree, which has for a generation or more been used by the parents to teach the offspring the value of always telling the truth. This story first appeared in Weems' "Life of Washington, with Curious Anecdotes," in 1806, and has made Washington as well known for boyish truthfulness as for any qualities as a general or statesman. Except for Bible stories, it has probably been read by more Americans than any other in our history.

With the thought that there may be some few who are unfamiliar with the story, we reprint it briefly as told by Weems: "When George was about six years old he was "ate the wealthy owner of a hatchet. He was constantly going about chopping everything that came in his way. One day, in the garden, where he often amused himself, he unluckily tried the edge of his hatchet on the body of a beautiful young English cherry tree, which he barked so terribly that I don't believe the tree ever got better of it.

"The next morning the father finding out what had befallen his tree, came into the house, and with much warmth asked for the mischievious author. Nobody could tell him anything about it. Presently George and his father met in the entry. 'George,' said his father, 'do you know who killed that beautiful cherry tree yonder in the garden?' This was a tough question, and George staggered and trembled for a moment. But quickly recovering himself, and looking at his father with the sweet face of youth brightening with the expressible charm of all-conquering truth, he bravely said: 'I can't tell a lie, pa; I cut it with my hatchet.' 'Run to my arms, my dearest boy,' said the father, 'such an act of truthfulness on the part of my boy is worth more to me than a thousand cherry trees.'"

The first edition of Weems' "Life of Washington" appeared shortly after Washington's death, and was dedicated to Mrs. Washington. It was in the fifth edition in 1806, in which the author inserted much new material, especially the anecdotes of Washington's youth, that appeared the story of the cherry tree, the story of the seeds which so mysteriously grew up in the shape of George's name, and of the apple tree and its fruit which taught George to be generous.

Whether these stories are authentic or not, Weems had lots of opportunity for learning facts about Washington from relatives and intimate friends of that great man. But strange to say, no one else connected with the Washington circle ever heard the stories Weems tells, nor were they prone to believe them when they appeared. The aged lady whom Weems makes his authority was never identified.

Another thing that caused a doubt as to the cherry tree story was that a son of the historian, when he was a very old man, related that the incident happened not to Washington, but to Weems' oldest son, Jesse, when the latter was about 5 years old, and was transferred to the "Father of His Country." If Weems had told the full truth of the story, the sequel would have been different, for when the biographer called his boy to him for an explanation, instead of admiring him for his truthfulness, he gave him a sound trashing.

On the other hand, however, there have been those who have been busy in their efforts to confirm the story, and among other things to substantiate it, they present a German beer mug which is held in a valuable collection of relics at Princeton, N. J. The mug contains a picture of the boy George, the hatchet and the cherry tree, as well as the initials "G. W." and the date "1770." The mug belongs to the period of German manufacture, between 1770 and 1780. That is to say, the mug antedates Weems' printed version of the story sometime like twenty years, and it, therefore, offers evidence in support of the historical accuracy of this well-known incident.

The particular bit of collateral testimony from across the sea was picked up by an American traveler in a German hamlet on the shore of the North sea, and brought to this country some years ago. Without any fuller confirmation of the story of the cherry tree is entitled to the benefit of belief, and, in the absence of any proof or contemporary statement to the contrary, such evidence as is furnished by a piece of historical pottery is of very considerable weight in establishing the authenticity of the story.

TEACHERS DENOUNCE "KITING" FOR WHICH THEY ARE PAYING

Strong protest is made by Luther Elrod, H. H. Stone and Frank Lawrey, legislative committee of the county school teachers of Georgia, against delayed payment of county school teachers and especially against the practice of treasury "kiting" of funds constitutionally provided for the teachers.

Of the same tenor is a card to The Constitution from H. H. Stone, president of the board of education of Newton county.

Dwindling Percentages.

President Stone's card follows:

Editor Constitution: It has been a long time since the teachers in the common schools of Georgia received a square deal from the state. Their salary payments have been infrequently made, and when made have too frequently been discounted by necessity or ruinous rates.

Year by year the payment of the common schools appropriation is more and more deferred. By June 1, 1908, thirty per cent (30 per cent) of the school fund for that year was paid. By June 1, 1909, twenty per cent (20 per cent); by June 1, 1910, twenty per cent (20 per cent); by June 1, 1911, ten per cent (10 per cent); by June 1, 1912, ten per cent (10 per cent); by June 1, 1913, nothing.

Where has this money gone each year which had previously been devoted to paying to the common schools a small part of what was by legislative enactment their due? It must have gone either to enlarge some enterprise or institution of the state already existing, or else to foster some new undertaking which the legislature had deemed worthy of recognition.

Surely there is no beneficiary of the state which is so thoughtless (we will not say self-centered or selfish) that in the wild rush for an appropriation it would crowd back and shove aside the young women of the state trying to earn a livelihood in the schoolroom, or the little children striving to develop their God-given faculties.

What right has any new undertaking of the state to force itself into an advanced position in the line at the treasury window and demand all the funds that may be on hand leaving nothing for the common schools who have been standing long in line and waiting with patience and confidence for fair treatment?

If there is not sufficient money in the treasury to meet all claims, which may be due, the fair way and the honest way is to pro rate whatever money may be on hand among the various claims then due, in preference to the most part, little children in the common school appropriation have precedence by reason of (1) priority of existence, (2) greater importance of claim, (3) more widespread and fundamental benefit and (4) greater necessity.

Elbowed Aside.

But in the line at the state treasury window the common school appropriation representing young women and, for the most part, little children is elbowed out of line and shoved to one side to wait until the claims of the stronger interests are satisfied—and there are other claims presented and then others come—while still the women and the children wait.

When at last the common school appropriation reaches the state treasury window it is only to find that the treasury is exhausted and there is no relief in sight.

Then the common school appropriation was about forty per cent (40 per cent) of the entire appropriations—was not that part of the income of the state which was due for the schools of the state? Interests could not wait for their money and when they demanded all that the state had, why it had to go.

But there are special sources of income dedicated to the common schools. From which money has been placed in the state treasury between January 1, 1913, and May 1, 1913:

Dog tax	$ 51,370.41
Electric tax	4,572.00
License fees—near beer	264,720.00
Locker tax	26,433.00
Poll tax	224,310.33
One-half rental, W. & A. R. R.	70,002.00
Show tax	7,771.25
Total	$598,830.98

Cannot some of this money collected specifically for the common schools be paid out at once for the teachers' salaries already past due some four months or more?

No! All of this, too, has been paid out on the demand of the stronger interests and there is absolutely nothing for the common schools to do at present, but to go away back and sit down. Please be quiet and be as comfortable as you can.

No Special Privileges.

The friends of the common schools have never asked for special privileges and have asked the young appropriation be paid in advance, either for the entire year or for the quarter, or for the month but they do ask that its payment be put upon the same basis as that the institutions for higher education of the state occupy; that the various state boards and commissions occupy; that the state fuel cherry occupies; that the statehouse officers occupy that the legislature occupies; that payment be made regularly and at stated periods to the boards of education of each county in Georgia, so that salaried people can pay every teacher in the common school of Georgia each month the salary due for service rendered.

If at the beginning of any month the money available in the treasury should not be sufficient to pay all claims which may be due at that time then the available money in the treasury be prorated among all claims of every kind then due—none being slighted because too large or more neglected because too small.

This it seems is nothing more than common honesty and simple justice. Sincerely,

H. H. STONE.
President Board of Education, Newton County.

TAPEWORMS.

A Bulletin Issued by the Georgia State Board of Health

The story is told, but we do not vouch for its truthfulness, of a man who went into a restaurant and called for a dozen spoiled oysters. After eating one of them he told the waiter to bring him a dozen of the very finest oysters to be had. The waiter served the order and for a while suppressed his curiosity. Finally, it got the best of him and he asked the patron why he ate the bad oysters and then the good ones. The patron replied that it was because he had a tape-worm and he always fed it first.

There have been a lot of anecdotes told about the tape-worm, most of them based on the idea that these intestinal parasites cause a person infected by one to have an enormous appetite. An unusually large appetite may be a symptom of tape-worm, but on the other hand a patient may be harboring a worm 30 or more feet long and yet have a very poor appetite.

The only sure proof that a person has a tape-worm is in finding one or more of the broken off segments in his bowel discharges, or by finding the tape-worm eggs by a microscopical examination of the person's feces. The laboratories of the state board of health will make this examination free of charge. Mailing cases for sending specimens will be sent promptly to any one requesting them. Sometimes more than one examination is necessary.

Besides the disturbances of appetite spoken of above the patient may suffer from that train of symptoms commonly spoken of as chronic indigestion. There may be vague abdominal pains, the formation of more or less large quantities of gas and nausea. Nervous symptoms may exist, such as headache, dizziness, convulsions, and it is said that even reflex insanity may be caused by the presence of a tape-worm in the intestine. Sometimes there are disturbances of hearing and of vision, aches in the head, itching of the nose, and a feeling of general weariness.

It is a surprising fact, however, that one or more tape-worms of considerable length may be present without causing any symptoms whatever. Many people who are infected with tape-worms do not know it until the claims of the stronger interests are satisfied—and there are other claims presented and then others come—while still the women and the children wait.

When at last the common school appropriation reaches the state treasury window it is only to find that the treasury is exhausted and there is no relief in sight.

TRYING

By George Matthew Adams.

(Copyright, 1913, for The Constitution.)

You will never know of the wonderful things and powers that lie deep within you until you arouse them—touch the match of Enthusiasm to the Gun-powder that is somewhere in every one of them—and explode their elements to the light of your eyes.

Find out by Trying.

But do not make the mistake of stopping at mere Trying. Too many people put all their energies into mere Trying, and thus using up the energies that the job itself demands. Try—then get busy in Doing. But first—

Find out by Trying.

The world is the world is spotted with the deeds of men and women that came out to full view in middle or late life. These people had the power to do what was along existed within them as rich talents—ready for use. Thousands of people die without ever having given a chance to test their powers a single chance to add lustre to the world or to their individual characters.

Find out by Trying.

A great many things are bound to come up in your life today and every day, that you will feel like passing by as too difficult or unimportant. But, remember, that the little things suggest and grow into the big things. Try the Little things. Try the Big things. Let no one accuse you of not Trying—to do your best at all times.

toms whatever. This is true in children well as in adults.

There are quite a number of different varieties of these worms, but only the three most common ones will be mentioned here: (1) the pork tape-worm (taenia solium), the beef tape-worm (taenia saginata), and the fish tape-worm (bothriocephalus latus).

Laws requiring the inspection of meat to prevent the use of that which is diseased are only sure way to avoid having a tape-worm is to have all meats (particularly pork, beef and fish) thoroughly cooked before you eat it.

PERSONAL ASSETS HELD AS SECURITY

Receiver Appointed to Take Charge of Personal Assets of Heads of the Guarantee Trust Company.

The second battle in the legal war between the bondholders of the Guarantee Trust and Banking company and the corporation and its officers was fought to a conclusion in the arena of Fulton superior court on yesterday, and like the first engagement, resulted in a victory for the petitioning bondholders.

Recently, as the result of prolonged litigation, Judge J. T. Pendleton appointed J. D. Robinson, of Atlanta, as receiver for all of the assets of the Guarantee Trust and Banking company, on the petition of dissatisfied bondholders, who alleged that the company was hopelessly insolvent, and that its assets had been grossly mismanaged by the officers of the company.

From the decision of Judge Pendleton an appeal was entered to the supreme court of Georgia, where the attorneys for the corporation will make a strenuous effort to reverse the decision finding the company insolvent, and appointing a receiver to administer its assets.

Smith and Miles Indicted.

Shortly after the announcement of the decision appointing a receiver, bills of indictment were found against Sam E. Smith, president, and Henry S. Miles, secretary of the company, charging them with various felonies and misdemeanors, and these indictments are still pending on the docket of the criminal court.

The next step in the litigation was an amendment to the original bill charging that certain officers and directors of the company were personally liable to the bondholders for losses sustained by what the amendment termed the fraudulent conduct of the officers and promoters of the company, and particularly of Smith and Miles, who were alleged to have formed the corporation for the sole purpose of defrauding its patrons.

The amendment charged that Smith and Miles were hopelessly insolvent, and that unless their property was impounded, it would be transferred or put beyond the jurisdiction of the court, and the bondholders would be without further remedy than the diminished assets of the insolvent corporation.

Case Hotly Contested.

The case has been occupying the attention of Fulton superior court for several weeks, and has been hotly contested by both sides.

At the conclusion of the hearing on yesterday, Judge Pendleton announced his decision, sustaining the prayers of the petitioning bondholders, enjoining both Smith and Miles from disposing of any of their property and assets and hold them pending the litigation.

The petitioning bondholders were represented upon the hearing by Charles T. Hopkins and Albert Howell, Jr., while defendants in behalf of the Guarantee Trust and Banking company were represented by Henry C. Peebles, George M. Napier and Morris Brandon.

LA GRANGE PREPARING TO ENTERTAIN EDITORS

LaGrange, Ga., July 15.—(Special.)—The LaGrange chamber of commerce is a very busy body this week making preparations to entertain the delegates and visitors of the Georgia Weekly Press association, which meets here Tuesday and Wednesday, July 22 and 23.

Many banquets have been arranged and the city is preparing to entertain the Georgia editors in elegant manner and style. Governor and Mrs. Slaton have been invited to attend the convention, and many social entertainments will be prepared in their honor while in the city.

The decorations around the banquet tables will be Georgia newspapers. The waitresses at these banquets will be composed of LaGrange's fair and beautiful maids.

Letton to Address Hotel Men.

Accompanied by Fred Houser, J. F. Letton, manager of Hotel Ansley, is in Birmingham, where tonight he delivers an address at a banquet of the Alabama Hotel Men's association. Mr. Houser will introduce Mr. Letton.

Buy A Diamond On Deferred Payments

Our attractive deferred payment plans are open to reliable people anywhere.

You can get a diamond by paying only one-fifth cash. The balance, plus 6 per cent simple interest, can be distributed over ten months.

For instance: Say you wish a stone worth $125.00. You pay $25.00 down, which leaves a deferred balance of $103.00. Six per cent on this for 10 months amounts to only $2.75. There should be one payment 30 days from date of sale of $10.50, and nine equal monthly payments of $10.25 each.

You will see that these payments include the interest charge, which is just enough to cover the cost of the extra bookkeeping involved.

It would not be fair to the cash buyer to sell on long terms at cash prices, and good business men appreciate our telling them just what the difference costs.

Selections sent anywhere on approval by prepaid express.

PROVES SHE IS BOSS BY USE OF REVOLVER

Fusillade by Mrs. Nettie White Draws Police to Courtland Street Home.

Mrs. Nettie White has a decidedly original way of showing who rules the roost at her home, 111 Courtland street. Last night, when things didn't go to suit her, she got a pistol and drove the occupants behind locked doors with a fusillade.

When Policemen Palmer and Dodd arrived she explained:

"I just did it to show who was boss around here."

She was carried in a cab to police headquarters. Charges of disorderly conduct were docketed, and she was released on bond of $200. She frankly admitted the shooting, but declared she had not fired to hit anyone or anything.

She is a frail, delicate little woman of 26. Her husband, C. N. White, Jr., is a bookkeeper and cashier. They have been married for probably a year. Both say she is nervous and unstrung from grief caused by the recent death of a friend.

Last night about 9 o'clock, according to the story told by White to Night Chief Jett, he had gone home and found his wife asleep. He spoke of it to Mrs. Beattie, an elderly occupant of the home and friend of the family. Mrs. Beattie remarked that she certainly needed rest, as she had been visited frequently by friends during the day.

Mrs. White, at this juncture of the conversation, so the story went, put in her appearance. She was furious, and accused her husband and Mrs. Beattie of gossiping about her. It is said that she flailed White with her fists, and, not content with this, secured the revolver.

She fired it point-blank in the hallway, she admits. The husband and Mrs. Beattie scampered into nearby rooms and turned the key in the locks. Somebody in a neighboring drug store, hearing the shots, called police headquarters.

She will be arraigned in police court this afternoon at 2:30 o'clock.

LIGHTNING KILLS GIRL; SCORCHES GRANDFATHER

Homes of John Gentry and R. L. Franklin at Adairsville Are Struck.

Adairsville, Ga., July 15.—(Special.) When lightning struck the home of John Gentry, a farmer, living about 5 miles from here, his granddaughter, Kate, was instantly killed and Mr. Gentry was knocked unconscious. He will recover, but his body is burned from head to foot.

The lightning came down the chimney and tore its way through the side of the house end and dining room to the one in which the girl sleeping was killed. A bedstead was torn to pieces. There was some five or six other people in the house, but none of them were seriously hurt.

The home of R. L. Franklin was also struck, but not damaged.

KADERLY IS CHOSEN FOR SUPERINTENDENT

He Will Have Charge of the Georgia Southern and Florida Railroad.

Macon, Ga., July 15.—(Special.)—Late tonight it was announced that W. F. Kaderly, former superintendent of motive power of the Georgia Southern and Florida railroad, has been named general superintendent of the road.

F. W. Scott, who has been superintendent, will remain in that capacity, though it is reported that he is losing his eyesight.

J. A. Reed has been named to take care of the duties of both superintendent of motive power and master mechanic.

DEMOCRATS WORKING ON CURRENCY MEASURE

Washington, July 15.—Democratic members of the house banking and currency committee at a lively session today decided that the administration currency bill should contain a bond refunding provision. Later Chairman Glass announced that the majority had agreed upon the following points, in line with amendments urged by Secretary McAdoo to maintain the parity of the two per cent bonds:

"Section 20 of the bill is to be perfected so as to provide for the permissible retirement of 5 per cent of outstanding 2 per cent government bonds with circulating privileges, each year in exchange for government 2 per cent bonds without circulating privileges.

"Circulating privileges are to continue to the banks as long as 2 per cent bonds may be subscribed to for the purpose. Section 18 of the bill, which contained a prohibition on this, was eliminated. Nevertheless, newly organized banks are not required to purchase a given amount of government bonds in order to begin business.

"At the expiration of 20 years from the passage of the act, every holder of United States 2 per cent bonds then outstanding is to receive payment at par with accrued interest.

"The bill will be amended so as to require that the earnings of the government from the operations of the federal reserve banking system be set apart for the redemption of United States 2 and 3 per cent bonds."

Mr. Glass added that an agreement has been reached upon most of the troublesome features of the bill and he expects more rapid progress would be made on the remaining sections.

BURKES AND FIANCEE DROWN WHILE BATHING

Mason, Texas, July 15.—Charles P. Burkes, of Waco, former sergeant-at-arms of the Texas house of representatives, and his fiancee, Miss Effie Gemel, of Mason, were drowned in the Llano river, near here, today. Both were members of a bathing party. The young woman ventured beyond her depth, and Burkes attempted to rescue her.

MOVE FOR PEACE IN THE BALKANS

Servian, Greek and Bulgar Premiers Discuss Conditions — Greek and Servian Armies Pursue Bulgars.

London, July 15.—Reports through Berlin and Vienna say the Bulgarian premier, Dr. Daneff, has joined the Servian and Greek premiers at Nish to discuss conditions of peace. This important news has not yet been officially confirmed.

Official dispatches from Athens confirm the announcement from Saloniki yesterday that Greece is prepared to sign an armistice on condition that the frontier question, the payment of indemnity by Bulgaria and commissioners for the welfare of Greeks under Bulgarian rule shall be settled on the battlefield.

Fighting continues. The Greek forces have occupied the town of Drama, and, according to Athens advices the Bulgars have abandoned the Kresna passes and are retreating towards Dubnitza pursued by Servians and Greeks.

MAINTENANCE FUNDS FOR COLLEGES FIXED

The Subcommittee Recommends $7,500 for Experiment Station in Special Appropriation Bill.

With the cut of $15,000 in the appropriation to the State College of Agriculture and the allowance of $20,000 to the Medical College of Augusta, both of which were forecasted in The Constitution correctly, the subcommittee report to the house committee on appropriations, which was made yesterday afternoon, fixes the maintenance funds of the state's institutions at the same figures that weresallowed last year.

The cut of the college of agriculture is not from the maintenance fund proper, but from the fund used for extension work, which is placed at $25,000 this year. Last year it was $40,000. The college asked for $70,000 this year.

The appropriations committee postponed action on the sub-committee's report until Wednesday afternoon. Besides the general appropriations bill, several special appropriations were recommended by the sub-committee.

$7,500 for Experiment Station.

An important item was the recommendation of the sub-committee for the appropriation of $7,500 for the maintenance of the state experiment station.

The appropriation committee has been cutting all the general appropriations to the bone and leaving such matters as this for the consideration of the house in special appropriation bills. This appropriation will be brought before the house in this manner.

The state experiment station is now receiving an appropriation of $20,000 from the federal government, but the federal authorities have notified the state that unless this appropriation is substantially augmented by the state it will be withdrawn, which would mean either that the state would have to bear the entire expense of supporting the experiment station or abolish it.

Among other matters that came up outside of the general appropriation bill was a request from Macon for $10,000 for the University of Georgia, which that institution should give away in cash prizes for agricultural exhibits at the state fair. This appropriation applies to both 1914 and 1915, making a total of $20,000.

State Sanitarium.

The state sanitarium asks an increase in its appropriation commensurate with the estimated increase in the number of its inmates.

Cochran Bill Considered.

A great deal of interest was created in the appropriations committee Tuesday afternoon when the consideration of the bill of Mr. Cochran, of Fulton, for the creation of a commission to investigate the agricultural conditions of the state was brought before it.

Robert F. Maddox, vice president of the American National bank, of Atlanta; J. T. Holleman, president of the Southern Mortgage company, and Mr. Cochran advocated the recommendation of the bill.

Mr. Cochran explained that the object of the bill was to encourage greater production from the farms, and both Mr. Maddox and Mr. Holleman showed that the farming interests of the state are not producing as they are able.

The great increase in resources which could be effected by only a slight increase in production on the part of each farmer was illustrated by Mr. Cochran with the following figures:

There are 291,000 farms in the state of Georgia. If the production of each of these farms could be increased by as small amount as $50 per year the result would be an aggregate of approximately $15,000,000. Mr. Cochran commended the great work now being done by Dr. Soule, at Athens.

Mr. Maddox is of the opinion that the agitation and education which would be produced through the publicity lent by the meetings of this commission in the various sections of the state would alone be worth $2,500 which the bill asks of the state.

Action was deferred until the executive session of the committee Wednesday.

NEW JAIL IN SPALDING FROM OLD COURTHOUSE

Griffin, Ga., July 15.—(Special.)—At a meeting of the county commissioners today plans for converting the old courthouse into a comfortable and secure county jiail were accepted, and bids for the work will be advertised for in August. The plans accepted were those submitted by Frederick Ausfield, of Birmingham, and call for the expenditure of $28,000, which amount is to be raised by a direct tax levy, rather than by floating additional bonds.

This move to remodel the old courthouse and convert it into a sanitary jail is in keeping with the wave of prison reform sentiment that is sweeping the state at this time. Jail conditions in Spalding have been very unsatisfactory. More than once has it been declared that a term in the old jail was equivalent to a sentence in the chaingang. Several grand juries have recommended that reforms be instituted.

TWENTY-EIGHT BILLS ARE PASSED BY HOUSE

Recommitment Given Bill to Let People Vote on Western and Atlantic Sale.

The passage of a bill and a half to the minute was the average made by the house Tuesday morning when all local bills favorably reported were put upon their passage. Twenty-seven local bills passed the house

But a single general bill was passed. This was introduced by Mr. Olive of Richmond, and its effect is to amend section 5645, of the code of 1910, relating to the manner of verifying a petition or answer by parties residing beyond the limits of the state by providing that the same may be verified by a notary public or a justice of the peace.

The vote upon the creation of Candler county, recently recommended by the committee on constitutional amendments, has been set for special order Thursday.

The bill of Mr. Meadows, of Oconee, to prevent the sale of the Western and Atlantic railroad property except by the consent of the people at the polls, was not placed before the house for a vote Tuesday, as had been expected, by but was recommitted to the committee on constitutional amendments. Its first committment was to the W. & A. committee, which recommended it to the house for passage.

At 12 o'clock the joint session of the house and the senate convened to hear the addresses of Herbert Myrick, of Illinois, who spoke upon "Farm Finance for the South," and Judge T. Sambola Jones, of Louisiana, southern commissioner for the Panama exposition.

The two branches of the legislature on Tuesday passed a resolution inviting Senator Hoke Smith to address a joint session next Friday.

By a recommendation of the rules committee the penitentiary committee was of the house was increased by the addition of Mr. Olive, of Richmond, and Mr. Jones, of Gilmer, and the committee on railroads was augmented by the addition of Mr. Wimberly, of Bibb.

The matter of raising the salaries of the members of the prison commission, which was defeated in the house on Monday, was brought up for reconsideration by Mr. Wohlwender, of Muscogee, and will be carried over until next year for action.

Local Bills Passed.

The following local bills were passed by the house on Tuesday:

By Mr. McWhorter of Greene—To amend the charter of Greensboro.

By Mr. Cook of Chattahoochee—To create a board of commissioners of roads and revenues for Chattahoochee.

By Mr. Jones of Coweta—To incorporate the town of Sharpsburg.

By Mr. Bell of Clay—To amend the charter of the town of Bluff.

By the Floyd Delegation—To amend the charter of Rome.

By Messrs. Smith and Field of DeKalb—To amend the charter of Lithonia.

By Mr. Adams of Hall—To incorporate the town of Clermont.

By Mr. Barry of Whitfield—To amend the charter of Tunnel Hill.

By Mr. Grimes of Milner—To amend the act creating the board of commissioners of roads and revenues for Miller county.

By Mr. Warren of Turner, and Others—To arrange the Cordele judicial circuit so that Turner county shall become a part of said circuit.

By Mr. Clements of Irwin—To change the time of holding superior court.

By Mr. Hurt of Warren—To amend the charter of Norwood.

By Mr. McRae of Wilcox—To hold four terms of the superior court.

By Mr. McRae of Wilcox—To abolish the city court of Wilcox.

By Mr. Clements of Irwin—To amend an act creating the board of commissioners of roads and revenues of Miller county.

By Mr. Mills of Butts—To amend the charter of Jackson.

By Mr. Atwood of McIntosh—To amend the charter of Darien.

By Mr. Miller of Bibb—To give the county commissioners certain power.

By Mr. Miller of Bibb—To repeal an act authorizing the county commissioners to sell bonds.

By Mr. Hunter of Spalding—To amend the charter of Griffin.

By Mr. Grimes of Miller—To amend an act creating the city court of Miller.

By Mr. DeVaughn of Macon—To amend the charter of Ogletborpe.

By Mr. Duncan of Dooly—To amend the charter of Unadilla.

New Bills Introduced.

The following new bills were introduced:

By Messrs. Smith and Field of DeKalb—To amend the charter of Kirkwood.

By Mr. Dorough of Franklin—To create a new charter for Carnesville.

By Mr. Clements of Irwin—To establish the city court of Irwin county.

By Bibb Delegation—To empower the commissioner of roads and revenues to appropriate certain county moneys.

By Mr. Moon of Troupe—To amend the charter West Point.

By Mr. McLendon of Early—To amend the act creating the board of commissioners of roads and revenues of Early.

Healey Strike Not Settled.

There was no work on the Healey building yesterday, and it is safe to say there will be none today. Neither side to the controversy had made any concessions yesterday, but last night a committee from the organized workingforces was booked for a conference today with representatives of the contractors looking to an adjustment of the differences. The committee to return its report to the president of the executive board of the Building Trades Council.

Mrs. C. J. Beane.

Mrs. C. J. Beane, for many years a resident of Atlanta and one of the staunchest members of the Trinity church of this city, died at 11:30 o'clock Tuesday at her home in Montgomery. The body will be brought to Atlanta for interment at West View. She is survived by her husband, one son, C. J. Beane, Jr., and two daughters, Misses Ethel and Ruth Beane.

MEDICAL CERTIFICATES FOR MARRIAGE FAVORED

Measure Introduced by Senator Hixon Gets Unanimous Report of Committee.

A radical marriage contract law was reported favorably by the senate committee on hygiene and sanitation Tuesday when the bill of Senator Hixon, requiring all would-be-weds to make out medical certificates, was heard before this committee.

Dr. Floyd M. Young, Dr. B. L. Embry and Dr. Bates Block spoke before the committee in behalf of the measure and it was reported favorably without a dissenting vote.

The bill provides that persons to be able to contract marriage must be of sound mind; if a male, at least 16 years of age, and if a female, at least 16 years, and laboring under neither of the following disabilities, in addition to those prescribed in section 2921 of the code of 1910, viz:

"1. Afflicted with the tuberculosis, syphilis, gonorrhea, pellagra, cancer or any infectious or contagious disease.

"2. Addicted to the habitual or excessive use of intoxicating liquors, opium, cocaine, chloral hydrate, all their derivatives and all other drugs and chemicals of habit-producing qualities.

"3. If ever afflicted with any of the foregoing named diseases or addicted to the use of any of the above named liquors, narcotics, etc., within the past twelve months, except infectious, contagious diseases; these to be pronounced perfectly cured by the certifying physician.

"Section 2. Be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That no marriage license shall be granted by the ordinaries or their deputies in this state until the applicants therefor produce a certificate from their family physician in this state, certifying that applicants are of good health and have none of the diseases named in the foregoing sections and are not addicted to the use of any of the foregoing named liquors, narcotics, etc., within the past twelve months, except infectious or contagious diseases; these to be pronounced perfectly cured by the certifying physician."

AT THE THEATERS.

Keith Vaudeville.

(At the Forsyth.)

There are quite a number of features on this week's bill at the Forsyth that make the show a delightful variety entertainment. Valerie Bergere and her company, presenting a sketch called "Judgment," has a gripping interest from the introduction of the act to its tense climax. Britt Wood, the eccentric juvenile actor, has eclipsed the tremendous hit scored by him last summer at the Metropolitan. Minstrels appeal particularly to the people who like good singing and dancing. John F. Conroy and His Living Models, will headline the bill for next week.

Moving Pictures.

(At the Grand.)

Motion pictures at the Grand continue daily from 2:30 in the afternoon until 10:30 at night. This week the management is presenting a program lasting an hour and made up of the highest grade moving picture features to be seen. The performances are continuous, the program being repeated as fast as it is run off. The management announces for next week, matinee at 2:30 daily, and at night 8:30, the production of nine reels of Victor Hugo's masterful story of man versus crime "Les Miserables."

Musical Comedy Tabloid.

(At the Bijou.)

Much interest is being shown in this week's tabloid musical comedy, "Hotel a la Carte," and it is pleasing delightful audiences to the Bijou. The production as a whole ranks well with the best that has been seen at the Bijou this season and in the musical line are at least a dozen pretty musical numbers that demand encores and the work of the chorus girls in the show will is usually seen in popular-priced attractions. Some clever dancing is also introduced by Joe Rent, one of the best hard-shoe dancers in vaudeville today. Gordon Newman, as Percy Uno, Walter Wellsley, as the barber, and Miss Mamie Bigmore as Phoebe Spearmint, all deserve especial notice for clever work.

PENSIONS PROVIDED FOR POOR MOTHERS

Pittsburg, Pa., July 15.—Commissioners of Allegheny county today appropriated $13,000 for the payment of pensions to mothers who have children dependent upon them. Before the money is available, Governor Tener, under the law enacted by the last legislature, must name a board of trustees, by whose direction the money, together with Allegeheny county's proportion of the $100,000 appropriated by the state, will be expended.

Only others of children dependent because of death or desertion of their fathers, are eligible to pensions.

FIRST SENATOR NAMED BY GEORGIA VOTERS

Only Light Vote Cast in State, as Bacon Had No Opposition.

As everyone knew in advance A. O. Bacon was elected United States senator from Georgia yesterday for a term of six years, beginning March 4, 1913. Under the circumstances the vote, of course, was light and the returns slow in coming in.

So far as has been learned the election of the senator was a unanimous one. He had the nomination of the democratic party last year, and there were no announced candidates against him. The vote in Fulton county was light, but quite a number of the senator's friends took advantage of the opportunity to prove the continuance of their confidence in him by going to the poll and casting their ballot. It was the first time Georgia had ever elected a senator by popular vote.

FINE TOOLS STOLEN, APPEALS TO COUNCIL

Sewer Contractor Will Ask City to Furnish Guards for His Camps.

Declaring that he has reported numerous robberies to the police without getting any results, E. E. Dysard, of the Dysard Construction company, in charge of some of the sewer work being done by the city, says that he will appear before council and ask for protection.

He charges that his camps have been robbed within the past two months. His lossesa, he says, amount to many hundred dollars. His chief complaint is that the robbers take the most valuable tools they can find, and thus delay the progress of his work. He will ask that the city furnish guards for his camps.

Robinson's Black Bitters

Is Not a Substitute for Calomel

We have never made that claim for it, but we do say that where it is used there will seldom arise the need or necessity of taking calomel, as it keeps the liver and other vital organs in such a perfect working condition that there is not that accumulation of bile and the clogging of the system that makes it necessary to take strong medicines. ROBINSON'S BLACK BITTERS is not a cure-all remedy, but does act on the stomach, liver, kidneys, bowels and other vital organs pleasantly, promptly, and do not gripe or pain, and as pleasant as the action on the system that the dread you have always had for taking medicine will pass away after you have once used this. A swallow on retiring at night brings sound sleep and a magical effect the next morning.

We want all sufferers from any stomach or blood trouble to try it, if the results are not satisfactory to you the dealer you bought of will cheerfully return your money.

Price $1.00 a bottle; 6 bottles, $5.00. Coursey & Munn, Atlanta, Ga., and dealers everywhere.—(Adv't.)

The Crackers play their last game today on the home grounds for two weeks. They'll be back home again July 31, when they open up a series with Nashville.

FINAL HOME GAME FOR TWO WEEKS

EDITED BY Dick Jemison

WHIFFS

A Tough Job.

THE CRACKERS have certainly got a hard row to hoe before they can be acclaimed Southern league champions 1913. Of the next twenty-nine games, scheduled, play offs, etc., twenty-five will be on hostile soil—H-E-L-P.

The Bright Light.

THERE are two encouraging features, however. When you take into consideration that the Crackers won more games than they lost away from home this year, when they were going badly and with a pitching staff that was not able to deliver, one cannot help but see a bright light, with the team playing fighting, pennant-winning ball and the hurling corps in fine shape.

The Answer.

DENT'S arrival into the winning class is due to faithful practice in mastering an overhand delivery without injuring his one great asset—control. Dent's control has been excellent all season, but he was not getting away with that side arm ball. The minute he switched to the overhand he began to look like a different pitcher and he can be counted on regularly now.

His Great Work.

JOE AGLER'S great improvement with the stick has been another factor in the Crackers great playing of late. Joe was in a horrible slump up until June 5. On that date he cracked those boys hits in four straight. Since then Joe has been getting his bingles regularly and from that date, including Monday's game with the Billiken, Joe registered 43 safe blows in 118 trips, an average of .364, batting his average for the season to within the neighborhood of the .290 mark.

Another Change.

CHAPMAN'S improved willow work has been another factor. He was catching nice ball, but his hitting had not been any too good. Then Harry stopped swinging like a golfer. He tried to meet it, not kill it, with the result that his bingles have been coming more regularly and at a timely moment. During the home stay Harry has driven in just about as many runs as any one else.

A Ten Strike.

BILL SMITH certainly showed his shrewdness as a baseball executive to be signed Frank Manush to take George Rohe's place as utility man. Manush shows no sign of the injury that laid him low this spring, and he gives every promise of being the best utility man the Crackers have ever had.

On the Lines.

WE MUST doff our hats to Manush and Dunn again. Their work on the coaching lines has been excellent. They have shown themselves to be wide awake and they have made plenty of fuss. Unless they are needed in the game, we suggest that they be kept on the coaching lines for some time to come. They could not be improved upon.

Lock the Gates.

IF Shawnee Bill Bailey goes up to that old bat some day, discovers what has been wrong with his batting and starts hitting in the .300 class, then it will be "Katie, bar the gates," for the Crackers will went from here. Bailey is a natural batsman, and why he is in such a slump none of his teammates or he himself can account for. But it won't last always. Take encouragement from Joe Agler's recovery. Bill, and Keep plugging. They'll break right soon.

As a Tip.

IF WE can be permitted to make a suggestion, Bill, try choking the bat a little, checking your swing a trifle and shooting at them. If you get a few of them safe this way, then you can drop back to your famous swing. At least, this suggestion is worth a trial. It might be the very thing. Give if a try today, Bill, and let's see.

It Is Time.

ATLANTA and Nashville papers differ in their standings by reason of one game. We have the same at Nashville that was contested and forfeited in our won column, while the Nashville papers have it theirs. It's time that Kavanagh was making some ruling on this. It is possible that we might run into that situation before long, soon, and if we do, the other cities will laugh at our claims on account of this game. Get busy, Judge.

Give Him Credit.

TO JOHN DOBBS, manager of the Montgomery Billikens, belongs the credit for the wonderful showing of the Billikens this season. Compare the Billiken man for man with some of the other clubs in the league and they do not look any better and in some instances not as good. They would look infinitely worse if Dobbs was not the manager. Johnny plucks every bit of ball playing ability there is out of even ordinary players and makes them look like champions. You've got to hand it to Johnny.

QUERIES ANSWERED

Under this head, the sporting editor will endeavor to answer all questions pertaining to all branches of sports.

Dick Jemison, Sporting Editor The Constitution: Where do the Southern league season play Labor Day? R. O. C.

New Orleans in Atlanta, Mobile in Chattanooga; Montgomery in Birmingham; Memphis in Nashville.

Dick Jemison, Sporting Editor The Constitution: When does the season end in the league which is the regularly scheduled game for the day? E. E. L.

In the Southern league and in the big leagues they consider the first game the regularly scheduled game, and the second game the postponed or the play off.

JOHNSON HAS NOT SUSPENDED COBB

New York, July 15.—Regarding the report that Ty Cobb, of the Detroit club, had been indefinitely suspended, President Ban Johnson, of the American league, who was here today attending the dedication of Ebbetts' field, said the report from the umpire regarding the trouble Cobb had in yesterday's game had not been received; that he had heard nothing officially about the trouble and therefore had not suspended Cobb.

Cole Pitches No-Hit.

Milwaukee, Wis., July 15.—Leonard "King" Cole, former star in the Chicago National ranks and now with the Columbus association team, pitched a no-hit game here today, defeating the locals by 3 to 1. hTe league leaders made this tally on a pass, an error and a sacrifice. Cole struck out four men. The Columbus tea mmade the cipher look all the larger by making eleven hits off the opposing pitcher.

Elmer Brown Gets Near Shutout; Gil Price Has Two Bad Innings; Wares and Knaupp Star in Field

By Dick Jemison.

Elmer Brown can come back. He demonstrated that so conclusively Tuesday afternoon that but for a let down in the final session he would have whitewashed the Crackers.

The count was 7 to 1.

This Brown is some pitcher, when he is right. Tuesday was one of his "right" days. He had the hard hitting Crackers batting out of his hand until the final chapter. When he showed a sign of a let up, some marvelous play nailed a man at bat.

Gil Price was not as successful in his come-back as Elmer. Gil had two bad innings, the third and fourth. Rubbing those on the slate the pitcher ed as well as Brown, but those two have to be counted in the box score and innings. They did the dirty work.

Star Fielding.

Cotton Knaupp and Percy Wares around that old keystone for the Billies played a fine game. Either of the ball as one would care to see. They started a double play each, by way of passing, but it was their fine snags and apparent safe hits that were excellent. Kanupp figured in at least four of these hit-killing plays.

Speedy Jantzen in left field covered a world of ground for the Billies. The two putouts that he registered killed what looked like two base drives, while in the ninth inning he grabbed Manush's drive with one hand, keeping it from the ball's getting circuit clout. He was lucky to touch it at all, but his marvelous speed and judgment came near flagging the pill for an out.

Wallop Smith took a day's lay off with his bum mitt, and Frank Manush played the hot corner. The local utility man handled five chances in most approved style and laced out two of the four hits the Crackers registered off of Brown.

How They Scored.

The Billikens got five clear clattering across the platter in the third chapter. Walker smacked one to center for a base and was advanced a second when Wares drew a free ticket. Elwert laid down a safe bunt, filling the cushions.

Price tightened up here and fanned Breen, but Jantzen cut in with a single scoring a couple. Knaupp drove in Elwert and Jantzen for a triple to right and Snedecor sent Knaupp home with a single to right.

In the fourth they counted a couple more. Walker got on on Bisland's error. Wares smashed a long one to left that Bailey nearly captured after a hard run, but it went for two bases. Elwert chimed in with a single, driving in both men.

Price went great guns after this session, and the Bills never had another chance, but Brown was going just as strong on the other side and securing great support.

With only one hit secured off his delivery, Brown started the ninth. Welchance got a free ticket, Jantzen registered the second hit with a blow to center. Manush then drove one on a line to left, which Long made a great try for and nearly held. He kept the bases filled by the wonderful ston.

Bisland and Agler were easy ones, but Bailey prevented the shut-out by pulling one to left for a cushion. Chapman, batting for Brown, struck out.

WHITE DUE TODAY, ABEL THURSDAY

Chicago Papers Say Charlie Has Left There for Atlanta. Jake's Brother Vouches for His Appearance.

Charlie White will get in here today, if a telegram from his manager Nate Lewis, and the Chicago papers can be believed. They all state that White left for Atlanta Tuesday and should arrive here this afternoon or tonight.

A wire received last night from Blacky Ragsdio states that Abel will arrive in Atlanta from Memphis Thursday. Max Abelson, Jake's brother, who is living in Atlanta, vouches for the appearance of his brother at that time.

Jake never reports until the last possible minute, no matter where he fights. He has a good training camp at Memphis and is sticking there to the last moment.

The Tribune, of Chicago, has a nice writeup Monday regarding White's trailing at Nate Lewis' gymnasium, and says he is fit as a fiddle for Friday night's bout and will report here on time and in condition to battle hard.

The other four battlers, Lee and Young in the semi-wind up and Standen and Nelson in the preliminary, are all in the city and will complete their training today for the bouts.

Tickets can be found at Tumlin Brothers and Shepherd's Segar store. Prices ranges from 50 cents to $2.

Foxes 5, Peaches 1.

Columbus, Ga., July 15.—Weidell, never before pitching better ball, held Macon in the hollow of his hand, while the Columbus hitters batted a victory by the score of 5 to 1. The one Macon run came in the eighth when Nixon hit for three bags and scored on the squeeze play. Three hits were all the Peaches secured, while the Columbus hits came when they would count for runs.

LEGISLATORS TO SPEAK TO SUFFRAGISTS TODAY

Legislators will address the Atlanta Equal Suffrage association at their meeting in Carnegie library at 3:30 o'clock this afternoon on bills which the suffragists have already supported. Mrs. E. P. Greene, of Houston county, will discuss the age of consent bill, and L. J. Cooper, of Ware, will speak on the woman lawyer bill. Suffragists will join in the discussion, which is expected to attract a capacity house, and the general public is invited.

LEFTY LEIFIELD MAY NOT REPORT

Does Not Like Style He Is Said—Manager Smith May Land Pitcher Clark From Griffith.

Report has it that "Lefty" Leifield may not report to the Crackers, but Manager Smith stated last night that he had no official notice to that effect.

Billy received a telegram from President Murphy, of the Cubs, yesterday, which read: "See Lefty," so it is presumed that the Cub boss is informing Smith concerning the Leifield trade in full.

Manager Smith hopes to learn definitely this morning whether or not Leifield is coming, as he has a chance to land a good pitcher from his friend Clark Griffith, at once.

The pitcher in question is named Clark. He twirled for the Vancouver club, of the Northern league, last season and won twenty-three games and lost nine, a percentage of .719.

Griffith touts Clark highly. Manager Smith would have taken him Tuesday had he been definitely assured as to the status of Schmidt. Clark is a corner. So now he has two complete engines for his racer. For the present he is working on the old engine and expects to have it going crazy fast by tonight.

The four-cornered match race, which willend the program, will be run as sort of a consolation.

The game was played on June 21 on LaGrange grounds and occurred during the time when there was so much dissatisfaction over umpires' decisions.

ARTIE HOFMAN SUES CUBS ON CONTRACT

Chicago, July 15.—Arthur Hofman, formerly a member of the Chicago National League club, filed suit against the Chicago Baseball club for $8,000. He asks this sum as damages due him by reason of a termination of his contract with the manager, to the Pittsburg Nationals and subsequently was sent on the Nashville, Southern league, club.

McDonough Wins.

McDonough, Ga., July 15.—(Special.)—The McDonough team took the first game of the series from Newnan today in an eleven-inning game by the score of 3 to 2. The score being tied in the first inning until the eleventh at which time, by the hard hitting of the local team, they won. The features of the game was the pitching of Lester for McDonough and the two-base hit of Neal.

Motorcycle Races Postponed Again; Scheduled Tonight

Undaunted by a series of postponements unequalled in the annals of motorcycle racing the backers of the local Motordrome will try again tonight to pull the races scheduled first for Friday night and postponed daily since then.

That Jack Prince is still the rain king as of old has been steadily demonstrated since the local Drome was built and the potency of his aqueous spell seems unbroken.

The feature tonight will be the Friday night sweepstakes. Unfortunately the team in whose honor it was named, and the manager, Bill Smith, who was to start the race, have left Atlanta for a southern trip. But the riders and the race will be the same and it gives promise of being the best, as it will inevitably be the longest, ever known at the local Motordrome. The repeated postponements have had just one advantage. They have made it possible for Jock McNeil and Monty Graves to get their machines right. That means that in the oMtordrome purse there will be wonderful speeding. McNeil did not know that he has the famous "Auld Nick" running better than it ever ran before—and only a couple of weeks back it equaled the world's record for a mile on a four lap track. Graves has had some new parts sent from the Chicago factory and they arrived in good order yesterday. In addition to the new parts a brand-new racing engine was sent him. So now he has two complete engines for his racer. For the present he is working on the old engine and expects to have it going crazy fast by tonight.

The four-cornered match race, which willend the program, will be run as sort of a consolation.

Browns 3, Yanks 0.

St. Louis, July 15.—"Lefty" Hamilton was almost invincible this afternoon, while Keating was wild and ineffective at critical stages. St. Louis winning from New York 3 to 0. Pecklinpaugh was the only New Yorker to reach third base. E. Mitchell, a recruit pitcher from the Bluegrass league, during batting practice, hit Outfielder Johnston in the head with a pitched ball. Johnston was unconscious for twenty-five minutes. Doctors say he probably will be able to return to the game in a day or two.

Score by innings: R. H. E.
New York . . . . .000 000 000—0 4 1

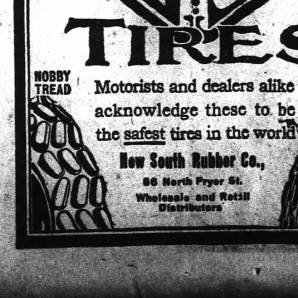
Lords Block Home Rule.

London, July 15.—A motion for the second reading of the home rule for Ireland was defeated in the house of lords this evening by a majority of 62. The vote was 302 to 164. The motion of Lord Lansdowne, leader of the opposition in the upper house, which declared "that this house declines to proceed with the consideration of the bill until it has been submitted to the judgment of the country," was then adopted without a division.



EARLY GAME TODAY TEAMS LEAVE TOWN

Final Billiken Game at 3 O'Clock—Thompson Faces Case—Locals Home Again July 31.

The final game between the Billikens and the Crackers will be called at 3 o'clock today. This early start is made so as to allow both teams to catch a train.

Thompson will face Case in today's battle. The contest will probably end at 4:40 o'clock.

The locals team opens up its road trip in New Orleans, playing there, in Memphis, in Montgomery and Mobile, in that order, fifteen games in all, before returning home again, which will be July 31.

CONGRESS AND WILSON AVERT GREAT STRIKE

New Federal Machinery Created for Adjustment of Railroad Wage Disputes.

Washington, July 15.—New federal machinery for the adjustment of railroad wage disputes was authorized today when the house and senate passed and the president signed the Newlands-Clayton bill just as it was agreed upon yesterday at the white house conference between President Wilson, congressional leaders and representatives of the big eastern railways and their employees.

This law creates the board of mediation and conciliation, headed by a commissioner, to which the eastern railways and employees brotherhood have declared their willingness to submit the wage controversy on account of which 80,000 conductors and trainmen have voted to strike. BILL CARRIGAN SUCCEEDS STAHL

Disagreement Between Manager and President Is Said to Have Led to Change. Stahl to Hold Stock.

Chicago, July 15.—"Jake" Garland Stahl was ousted as manager of the Boston Americans today by James McAleer, president of the club. Though differences were rumored causes of Stahl's release, both manager and president insisted that the demand of stockholders for a "playing manager" was the motive. Tomorrow Catcher William Carrigan will assume charge of the team.

Stahl's release was unconditional, and he will give up baseball as business, although retaining his Red Sox stock, devoting his time in the future to his banking business in Chicago. He has played four games this season, an injured foot keeping him out of the field. He managed the team from the bench.

Stahl was grieved apparently at McAleer's decision to release him and declared he had done his best to sustain the team's reputation as world's champions. To bad luck Stahl attributed the comparatively poor showing of the team this year. In connection with the news of Stahl's release, stories of internal trouble among the "Red Sox" were retold today. Carrigan, the new manager, was among the leaders of the faction which rumor says was against Stahl.

Stahl was induced by McAleer to return to the Boston team and assume the management at the beginning of the 1912 season, soon after McAleer became president.

Not a Surprise.

Boston, July 15.—The announcement that Manager "Jake" Stahl, of the Boston Americans, would sever his connection with the team he led to a world's championship last season was not unexpected here. The basis of the disagreement between President James R. McAleer, of the Boston club, and Manager Stahl, according to some, was the reported desire of Stahl to supplant McAleer as president, of which Stahl is understood to have disclaimed all knowledge.

Another factor was Stahl's inability to play because of an old foot injury. He prepared to direct the team from the bench, but President McAleer insisted that he get into condition to play. McAleer is understood to have practically ordered an operation on Stahl's foot, which was successfully performed more than a month ago, but the manager never recovered sufficiently to resume his position.

It is estimated that with Stahl's salary as player-manager of $10,000, his player's shares of the world receipts and his dividends on club stock, he cleared $25,000 last season.

"Hill" Carrigan, who succeeds Stahl, has a reputation as one of the leading baseball strategists among active players. He is 29 years old and a native of Lewiston, Maine. He came to Boston from Holy Cross college in 1906 and has been with the Red Sox since, except for part of 1907, when he played with Toronto.

MARRY FIRST, THEN THEY TELL RELATIVES

Dan Cupid stole a march on the older people Tuesday night when Miss Virginia Belle Ellis, of 560 South Pryor, and Harvey L. Jackson, of 98 Spring street, a well-known young business man of Atlanta, quietly walked off and were married by Rev. Dunbar Ogden in the church office of the Central Presbyterian church.

Immediately after the ceremony they returned to the home of the bride walked into the hallway, and informed them that a wedding had just taken place. Then they explained whose wedding it was.

They will be at home at 560 South Pryor street.

NEW PLAN URGED FOR FARM CREDIT

Herbert Myrick Tells Legislators of Two Systems of Banks to Enhance Rural Credits.

Herbert Myrick, of Illinois, president of Orange Judd Southern farming, addressed a joint session of the house and the senate at noon Tuesday on "Farm Finance for the South." In his address he outlined the principles upon which he believes this financial system should be established. He advised against mixing mortgage banking with current loans and deposits, and gave suggestions as to how farmers may finance themselves under th estate law. President Myrick advocated a bill for co-operative people's banks for personal credits, and co-operative land banks for realty credits.

President Myrick advocated the support of the reform bill for the monetary system now pending in congress.

In part, he said:

Principles of Tax of Finance.

"While a righteous fiscal system must have a basis fair alike to all, its practical application will vary according to the needs of various groups of people. But certain principles have been established by long and costly experience.

"Current credits must be based on quick assets.

"Permanent credits must be based on equally permanent obligations.

"To mix the two forms is so risky as to invite disaster.

Meaning of These Axioms.

"In commercial banking current deposits usually furnish 75 to 85 per cent of the bank's funds, the balance is the cash paid in by the stockholders, or accumulated earnings. Depositors of current funds must be sure of being able to get their money out when they want it. Therefore, the bank must lend its funds so that they are being constantly paid back.

"Now if the commercial bank invests heavily in mortgages on real estate, which are not due for years to come, it cannot sell these mortgages to meet the withdrawals of current deposits. Hence commercial banks, which deal mainly in current deposits subject to withdrawal at sight or upon short notice, should not invest in relatively permanent mortgages on real estate. This rule is the only safe one for commercial banking, whether under national or state law.

"On the other hand, real estate mortgages, upon a proper basis of valuation and terms of repayment, constitute the safest of all permanent investments. But because money on real estate mortgages must necessarily be loaned for a long period, this class of business requires a special type of bank to finance it. Savings banks and trust companies may safely loan their longtime deposits on real estate, because such deposits are relatively permanent.

"But mortgage banking in America, especially for farmers, requires much better facilities. Our wokingmen themselves perfected the co-operative building and loan association to enable them to pay for their own homes. These little local institutions, under the immediate supervision of their membership, and on a strictly co-operative basis, now have assets of over $1,000,000,000, have reached their highest development in the United States, and are now being imitated abroad. But the best method of financing farm mortgages is based on the German system, now 150 years old.

NEEDS OF SOUTHERN AGRICULTURE.

"What is needed is a new system whereby the farm owner may secure a loan on his land at a reasonable rate of interest. He should have the privilege of borrowing for a long term of years, on condition that he makes a small payment upon the principal thereof each year. It is believed that the land banking method herein advocated will work out so that the amount of interest now usually paid for mortgage money will be sufficient to pay not only the interest, but gradually to wipe out the principal.

"Under present methods you may pay interest on your mortgage for twenty, thirty or forty years, and at the end of the period you still owe the principal in full. Under the new system, the amount that paid will take care of both interest and principal, and at the end of the period your property will be free and clear.

Petty Savings and Loans.

"Except at a few centers, there is a dearth throughout the south of means whereby country people may be encouraged to make small savings, and then co-operate to employ these savings in relatively small loans to their members for productive purposes. If the so-called salaries, whose business is now so small that they do not patronize any bank, either as depositors or borrowers, would thus co-operate to apply their petty savings and their united credit for the purpose of furnishing short time or seasonal loans to their own people for productive purposes, the wealth of the south would increase by leaps and bounds.

"Such little local co-operative rural banks are entirely feasible. This idea is the simplest, safest and most practical form of associated effort. Owing to the absence of anything of the kind, many a farmer now feels that the bank or money lender is on top of him, and his neighbors against him, he is pessimistic discouraged, unsuccessful. How much better if he knew that the bank was his supporter and his neighbors working with him, then he would be an optimist, ambitious, successful. My method seeks to enable him to accomplish this result.

BELL AGAIN ATTACKS SENATOR HOKE SMITH

Wilson men. They are J. P. Stewart, at Tallulah Falls; L. F. Maxwell, at Cornelia; M. S. Cornett, at Lawrenceville; W. B. McCants, at Winder, and A. J. Loveland, at Ball Ground. The appointment to Mrs. Hattie F. Gilmer, at Toccoa, was not considered a political appointment.

Appointments at Gilmer, Commerce, Canton and Norcross are still undecided.

Stanley's Nomination Held Up.

Representative Hughes is still eagerly awaiting the nomination of V. L. Stanley, at Dublin, whom he recommended several months ago. Mr. Stanley has one of the largest indorsements ever presented in the postoffice department, but still his name is held up. Three Smith-Wilson men in the Georgia have examined the files of his paper, The Dublin Courier-Dispatch, and have signed a statement that his opposition to Wilson was perfectly legitimate and not bitterly partisan.

Representative Gordon Lee has not yet heard from his nominations of Mrs. W. C. Bunn, at Rockmart, and George Dansby, at Rockmart. He has been expecting them for several weeks. John I. Fullwood, the republican postmaster at Cedartown, is holding office under a recess appointment for over a year.

President Wilson did not send in any Georgia nominations to the senate today. The name of Howard Thompson, of Gainesville, to be marshal for the northern district is still pending before the judiciary committee of which Senator Bacon is a member.

"We are giving it very careful consideration," said Senator Bacon today. He added that Mr. Thompson and Joseph S. Davis, whose name has not yet reached the senate, would be confirmed on the same day.

Opposition to Barrow.

Senator Hoke Smith has made an engagement with Mr. McAdoo, secretary of the treasury for a delegation of Savannah citizens who will call tomorrow to protest against the appointment of David C. Barrow, as collector of the port.

Senator Bacon has selected Mr. Barrow for the place. The delegation, headed by Shelby Myrick, appealed to Senator Smith to get them a hearing. Others who are coming are Dr. George W. Herlott, Edwin A. Cohen, Dr. L. A. Smith, J. R. Williams and D. T. Elliott.

Hoke Smith Coming to Atlanta.

Senator Hoke Smith will leave Washington tomorrow afternoon on the Birmingham special for Atlanta. He will stop at the Piedmont hotel and will be there Thursday afternoon and for the rest of the week. He will address the state legislature on the issues of the day while in Atlanta. He will return to Washington next Monday.

CITY TAX ON SALESMEN FROM NORTH PROPOSED

Wholesale Merchants and Jobbers of Atlanta Will Ask Ordinance.

A delegation representing the wholesale merchants and jobbers of Atlanta will appear before the tax committee this afternoon and ask that an ordinance imposing a tax on northern salesmen be adopted. They will also suggest that salesmen who come here during the manufacturers' convention be required to take out a license.

Last year the Atlanta jobbers and wholesalers spent a great deal of time and went to a great expense to bring dealers to the convention. Salesmen from the northern and eastern markets hurried to the city and reaped harvest.

Atlanta merchants don't desire to exclude the other fellows, but they do want them to pay a tax or license fee just as all the others do.

Historic College For Women

Wesleyan

MACON, GEORGIA

Delightful climate. Thorough and extensive course of study. Music, Art and Oratory of the highest order. Illustrious body of alumnae, choice student body, ideal home life, student government, excellent faculty, splendid boarding department and good athletics. The oldest and one of the greatest great colleges for women in the world. Address, Dept. H.

C. R. JENKINS, Macon, Georgia

The North Georgia Agricultural College, Dahlonega, Ga.

No finer climate in the world than we have at the foothills of the Blue Ridge mountains. Complete isolation from the diversion of a noisy and distracting city life. The regular and orderly life that a boy lives here is conducive to the formation of habits that will make him regular and orderly in after life. Every student taught to depend on himself. He must work and be obedient to authority. Military training makes a young man observant, accurate, prompt and reliable. In addition to the A. B. and S. S. college courses, we have full courses in Agricultural, Mining and Electrical Engineering, and Business. Our boys live in our own dormitories and are under the control of officers all the time. All necessary expenses for the entire year, including board, fuel, lights, washing, books, two uniforms, and college fees, can be covered by $160. Write for catalog.

G. R. GLENN, President

SOCIETY

They Forget Style at Seashore, Therefore Everybody Is Happy

By Josephine Earnest Purse

By JOSEPHINE EARNEST PURSE.

"Do they wear the naughty bathing suits at Wrightsville which we see pictured in Vogue and Life?" someone wrote me the other day. I had to stop and think whether or not I had seen anybody who looked naughty, but it seemed to me everybody I thought of could come so well under the refrain of the last lines of that old song, maybe, "Naughty but nice."

The truth about the seashore is all the naughtiness is in the minds of the people who don't get there; just as all the naughtiness ascribed to people the minds of the "wall flowers," and all the naughtiness ascribed to people who frequent social clubs is in the minds of those not eligible to membership.

But back to the seashore and the bathing suits—if there ever was a place where people forget themselves and forget to carp at their neighbors, and how they look, it is at the seashore. Here is where everybody goes in for pure and unadulterated pleasure, and where, after the first consciousness of the first appearance in the first bathing suit, style is forgotten and everybody braces themselves against the great, grand sea waves and forgets whether their hair is losing curl, or the bathing skirt is the right cut. They go in for sport—real sport—and they come out of the water having had it; feeling rejuvenated, and forgetting the cares of whatever has been left behind in the dusty city, or the enemy who pecked at them at the last party.

"Style" Soon Disappears.

As a rule the bathing suits on their first appearance are rather pretentious. Trimmings of red prevail, and there are becoming colors, and a cap adjusted just so! This lasts about two days. Then the red fades, and nobody cares; the little bows here and there drop off. The cap is put on the head in the surest way and maiden who tripped in so consciously at first, just goes in at the last with the one thought of that refreshment that only the salt waves can give her.

There are many Atlantans here and it goes without saying that wherever they are there is social life and good comradeship.

The fishing is fine, many parties going out to sea each day for blue fish, Spanish mackerel and drum.

Informal bridge parties, sailing parties and dancing at Lumina are the diversions.

What Do They Dance?

They dance here just what they are dancing everywhere else—call it by any name you will, "the buoyant quickstep," the "poet's sigh," the "lanquishing load" or the "seaside glide."

Among the entertainments given during the week was the dansant given Wednesday afternoon by Mrs. Charles Baskerville, of New York, and Mrs. Adelaide Hoylston, of Raleigh. There were 150 guests.

Mr. V. A. Batchelor entertained forty guests on a sailing party Friday evening for his niece, Miss Margaret Northen.

Mr. and Mrs. George Brine gave a fishing party Friday morning.

Augusta and Athens are both well represented here.

Mr. Frank H. Barrett, Mrs. L. T. Doughty, Mrs. R. D. Clarke and the Misses Anderson are among those from Augusta.

Coleman and Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Charles Phinizy returne dto Athens Dorsey are among those from Athens.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Jones and Mr. Charles Phinizy returned to Athens the past week.

Atlantans at Wrightsville.

Some of those registered at the Seashore from Atlanta are: Mrs. M. P. Cooledge, Mrs. Edward Van Winkle, Master Edward Van Winkle, Mrs. George Forrester and son, Mrs. W. C. Jarnigan, Miss Erskine Jarnigan, Mr. E. P. Ansley, Miss Mamie Ansley, E. P. Ansley, Jr., Harry Ansley, Lee Walker McCarty, Edwin McCarty, Mr. and Mrs. John F. Glenn and son, Miss Kate Lynan, Mrs. I. K. Sams, Mr. and Mrs. T. T. Williams, Master Joe High Williams, Mr. and Mrs. B. H. Treadwell, Mrs. Mell Wilkinson, Miss Margaret Wilkinson, Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Brine, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Barnwell and children, r. and Mrs. B. W. Tye, Miss Caverly, Mr. W. A. Camp, Jack Pappenheimer, Ben Lumpkin, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur A. Devlin, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Dallis, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Black, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Coles, Peyton Coles, Miss Margaret Northen, Mr. V. A. Batchelor, Mr. J. D. McCarty, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Thomas R. Frazier, Mr. Edward Peters, Mr. Wimberly Peters, Mr. R. C. Congdon, Dr. and Mrs. Robin Adair, Mrs. Henry Kuhrt, Miss Louise Jones, Misses Isabel and Lucile Kuhrt, Mr. Henry Kuhrt, Mrs. McCaslin, Mr. John McCaslin, Mrs. Frank Pearson, Mr. Moore Pearson, Mr. and Mrs. George H. BIBLE IN SCHOOLS WILL BE CONSIDERED TODAY

Ministers of Atlanta Will Hold Meeting at First Baptist Church.

The agitation both for and against the bill to enforce the reading of the Bible in public schools, which has sprung up among the ministers of Atlanta, will probably be brought to some sort of definite action this morning at 10:30 o'clock when a meeting of the ministers of the city will be held at the First Baptist church.

Advocates of both sides of the question are expected to be present, and the question will be freely discussed.

Dr. John E. White, pastor of the Second Baptist church, who will be in Milledgeville Wednesday, stated last night that he is strongly opposed to the bill.

He said:

"It is a violation of the Baptist conception of the separation of the church and the state and is an interference with religious liberty. Furthermore, the passage of the bill would bring the Bible into common disrepute among the children by forcing its reading upon them."

GOOD DOG CATCHERS SURE HARD TO FIND SAYS CITY MARSHAL

"Gol' don hit!" exclaimed City Marshal Fuller as a reporter sauntered into his office in the city hall yesterday afternoon, "I reckon I'll never get two dog-catchers what'll suit the city."

The city marshal has about exhausted his patience, and is about to give up the quest for two dog-catchers to send out on the dog wagon, which has been resurrected by Alderman Van Dyke.

The city authorized City Clerk Walter Taylor to employ two dog-catchers at a salary of $5 a day. After several days the city clerk gave the job up. The city marshal then volunteered, and though he has examined more than 200 applicants, not one of the bunch could make a noise like a dog-catcher.

CHARTER IS GRANTED TELEPHONE COMPANY

A charter has been granted by Secretary of State Phil Cook to the Middle Georgia Telephone company, which will operate upon a capital stock of $25,000.

The principal office of the company will be in Macon, while its activities will cover Bleckley, Bibb, Laurens, Twiggs and Wilkinson counties.

The incorporators are as follows: J. A. Faucett and H. M. Fleetwood, of Macon; J. F. Peacock, of Cochran; M. C. Arnold, of Danville, and H. F. Griffin, Jr., of Jeffersonville.

HUSBAND IS BIGAMIST SAYS WIFE IN PETITION

I. L. Davis, according to his wife, has two other living wives and one but lately laid to rest. These startling disclosures were set forth in her petition for divorce filed in the superior court Tuesday.

He has not been divorced from either of his living wives, wife No. 4 alleges, and it was the discovery of this fact within two months after her wedding that wrecked her happiness.

Sketching the career of her husband, who lives at 607 Marietta street, Mrs. I. L. Davis alleges that he married Miss Evie Whitten in Atlanta in 1907, under the assumed name of Ivory York. In October, of 1910, she claims, he roped in wife No. 3, marrying Miss Martha Mahatney, in Knoxville, Tenn., and wife No. 1, who recently died, hailed from South Carolina.

TWO GOOD ROADS BILLS IN LOWER HOUSE TODAY

The bill of Representative Slater, of Bryan county, by which the state will be authorized to furnish 100 convicts to the counties of Chatham, Bryan, Liberty, McIntosh and Wayne or Glenn for the purpose of building a highway to the Florida line which will connect at Savannah with a national highway from Toronto, Canada, and at the Florida line will meet the Miami highway, will be reported upon favorably today by the judiciary committee of the house.

Representative Blackburn also has a bill by which a highway commission is to be formed in Georgia and this will also be reported upon favorably. Friends of these two bills claim that they will mean more for the development of Georgia roads and consequent good to the rural and city population than any other act which is to come up.

Baby's summer skin troubles

How to prevent them

During the hot summer months your baby's skin needs especial care. The high temperature and free perspiration cause the slightest thing to irritate it.

To prevent it becoming raw or chafed and breaking out in rashes and red spots bathe your baby daily with Woodbury's Facial Soap in the following way: Use luke-warm water, and with a very soft washcloth or silk sponge apply a generous lather of Woodbury's over the entire body. Then rinse with slightly cooler water and pat with a soft towel until the little body is thoroughly dry.

Woodbury's Facial Soap is the work of an authority on the skin and its needs. It has been recommended for years by physicians because of its valuable properties. Its cleansing action and mild antiseptic quality are just what your baby's skin needs for summer protection.

Woodbury's Facial Soap costs 25c a cake No mother hesitates at the price after her first cake Begin now to get its benefits. Get a cake today and try the treatment described above. See how delightfully sweet, smooth and soft it leaves your baby's skin.

COTTON RALLIED IN AFTERNOON

Early Decline Was Followed by Firmness in Afternoon, August Lost Six Points, but Others Closed Higher.

New York, July 15.—An early decline, attributed to foreign selling and cattering liquidation, was followed by a decidedly firmer tone in the cotton market today, and closing prices were steady, with August showing a loss of net loss of 6 points, while other positions were from 1 to 5 points net higher. General business continued quiet, but it was rumored that, for practically the first time this season, domestic mills were moderate buyers of new crop months against prospective requirements, and this demand, combined with rather a bullish view of the weekly report, no doubt accounted for the afternoon rally.

The opening was steady at an advance of 2 points to a decline of 1 point, with prices almost immediately sagging off, owing to the appearance of August selling orders in the hands of prominent Liverpool operations. The difference between August in New York and August-September in Liverpool was only about 70 points this morning, and it was reported that international houses who had sold in Liverpool and bought August here, when the difference was 135 points, were taking profits on their straddles. These offerings sent August off to a net loss of 11 points during the early trading and the weakness of the near month, evidently inspired some scattering liquidation of new crop deliveries, while there was also some southern selling and local offerings on favorable private crop reports from the north Texas and eastern Texas sections. July, however, held relatively steady, selling only 2 points under last night's closing figures. While the selling of August tapered off toward the close of Liverpool and general offerings here became very light before mid-day. Later the market showed increasing nervousness over the situation in the southwest, owing to the reports that both Texas and Oklahoma needed rain, dry weather and high temperatures had left the soil with insufficient moisture. The demand did not prove equal to the offering, however, but prices rallied some 10 or 12 points from the early low level, closing slightly off from the best under realizing.

New Orleans Cotton.

New Orleans, July 15.—The cotton market was quiet but steady today. After the middle of the morning the weekly weather report, which showed drought conditions over a large part of the belt, had their influence and stimulated scattered buying, which was met by only limited offerings. Crop reports, on the whole, were more favorable than expected. Much cotton was reported to be opening in the early counties of Texas and a few bales from Laredo and that 200 Americans had left there for the cotton fields, but these accounts did not increase short offerings.

To-morrow's session was quiet, 2 points down to 2 points up, compared with the last prices of yesterday. Favorable weather and crop news was called favorable, but at their close trading months were only 3 to 4 points under the highest figures of the day. This decline was covered and replaced by a net advance after the call. Liverpool worked up to a level 5 to 6 points over yesterday's last figures and closed steady at a net gain for the day of 3 to 6 points.

Spot cotton quiet, unchanged; middling 12.7-16; sales 0 bales spot, 300 sales to arrive, 44 low ordinary, 9-16 nominal; ordinary, 9½, nominal; good ordinary, 11 7-16; strict good ordinary, 11¾; low middling, 12; strict low middling, 12¼; middling, 12 7-16; strict middling, 12¾; good middling, 12 11-16; strict good middling, 12¾; middling fair, 13 9-16 nominal; middling fair, 13 9-16, nominal; middling stain to fair, 13 15-16, nominal; receipts, 14 5-16, nominal; receipts, 530; stock, 36,640.

Dry Goods.

New York, July 15.—The cotton goods markets are steady with operations most general in lines for the spring of 1914. Staple cotton goods and ribbons for fall are scarce and importers are advancing considerable business. Yarns rule quiet.

Bradstreet's Available Supplies.

RUST SCARE OVER WHEAT DECLINED

Closing Prices Were One to One and One-Eighth Under Night Before — Corn and Oats Also Off.

Chicago, July 15.—Opinions by experts that the wheat crop in the Dakotas and Minnesota was too far advanced to be endangered by rust, gave the market a downturn today. Closing prices, though steady, were 1 to 1 1-8 under last night. Corn finished 1-8 to 1-2@5-8 off and oats at 1-4@7-8 to 1-4 decline. In provisions, the outcome varied from last night's level, to 17 1-2c below.

Notwithstanding black rust reports came from additional points, this side of the Canadian border, and from one place the Saskatchewan wheat traders, as a rule, became more skeptical than excited. According to a leading authority, samples of affected grain showed slight evidence of the fungus, but under conditions in which serious harm probably would result. Disappointment over cables added to the troubles of the bulls. The world's available supply was shown to be 3 million bushels larger than a year ago, export inquiry was slow, and receipts rapidly on the increase. Ground for a rally could be discovered and in the last hour bearish sentiment was practically unchecked. Primary arrivals of wheat amounted to 1,191,000 bushels against 485,000 the corresponding day last year. Seaboard clearances of wheat and flour equalled 344,000 bushels.

Despite an advance due to scorching and drought southwest, corn prices eventually declined. Mainly, the cause appeared to be the freedom with which prominent longs undertook to realize profits.

Oats were depressed by the weakness of corn and wheat and by heavy speculative selling, based on improved crop advices from states of largest production.

Provisions rose moderately with hogs. Malwaukee packers, however, unloaded on the advance, and wiped out most of the gain.

Coffee.

New York, July 15.—A sharp break in Europe caused renewed weakness in the early market for coffee values today and after opening barely steady to a decline of 15 to 16 points, active months sold about 21 to 22 points under yesterday's closing figures. Europe was a moderate seller here. There was scattering liquidation attributed to recent buyers for a rally, but cost and freight offers from Brazil were unchanged and after the close abroad, prices rallied 4 or 5 points from the lowest.

Spot coffee unsettled; Rio No. 7, 9; Santos, No. 4, 11¾.

Mild coffee, Cordova, 13@16¾.

Owing in the holiday, the regular Brazilian cables were not received. The special cable reported Santos barely steady with fours unchanged at the opening this morning. Havre was 1¼@1½ francs lower, and Hamburg was ¼ pfennig lower.

STOCKS SHOWED AN IMPROVEMENT

Market Opened Higher and Held the Gains — Shorts Were Nervous as Stocks Advanced—Bonds Steady.

New York, July 15.—Although trading in stocks was still of nominal proportions, again falling below the 100,000 mark, there was a decided improvement in tone today. Prices opened higher and held their gains. In the last hour of trading, the market became more active and best quotations of the session were reported. Gains, in some cases, amounted to 2 points.

There were evidences of growing nervousness on the part of the shorts as the day progressed. The short interest now outstanding was pronounced by some traders to be the largest of the year. The impression that which unfavorable news of the last fortnight has been ignored in movements of the market, apparently has made some impression on efforts to cover, which led to rather urgent bidding in the last hour, were largely responsible for the advance.

An important influence was the improvement in the European markets. For the first time in several days, Europe took an interest in this market, and bought stocks, chiefly Canadian Pacific. The more confident feeling abroad was reflected in an advance of American stocks in London, which influenced the opening here.

Railroad shares were strengthened by the news from Washington that the Erdman act was to be amended in a manner that would bring about arbitration of the eastern railroad difficulties.

The copper shares continued to lag behind. A further decline in foreign metal markets was reported, and at home the market was said to be at a standstill, despite recent price concessions. Bonds were steady. Total sales, par value, $1,168,000. Panama 3s registered and coupons declined ¼ on call.

Paris, July 15.—Three per cent rentes, 84 francs 25¢ centimes for the account. Exchange on London, 25 francs 24¢ centimes for checks. Private rate of discount, 3¾ per cent.

London Stock Market.

London, July 15.—The stock market is gradually improving. Reconstruction due to the near east situation, and is developing a more cheerful tone. Many operators are in fear of effect of cheaper money and reports that the Balkan war is ready to negotiate for peace, induced fresh support and bear covering today. Consols were the leading features with an advance of 1-8 on the general reopening of Paris was accompanied by buying orders which existed in the general improvement. Argentine was steady, with Mexican rails weak and stagnant.

American securities advanced during the early trading. Canadian Pacific gained 2 points and the rest from ¼ to ¾ points. Trade was declining. Later the transactions were limited, but values did not recede and the market closed steady.

Money was more plentiful and discount rates were easier.

Consols for money 72¾; for account 73. Anaconda, 31½. New York, 96¼.

Louisville and Nashville 135¼.

Southern Railway 21¾.

THE ADVENTURES OF DOTTO, THE WANT AD SCOUT---The Adventure of the Needed Loan.

ATLANTA'S STRIDES FROM DAY TO DAY

All the News of Real Estate and Building.

Thoughtful citizens pause semi-annually to review the progress of their home community," said John H. Babbage yesterday, Atlanta's well-known realty man, of "Ask Mr. Babbage" fame.

"Atlanta's balance sheet for the past six months shows a healthy condition of affairs. The towering Hurt building is almost completed, the frame-work of the Healey building has already dotted Atlanta's sky-line. The Ansley hotel is completed and in successful operation. And the Hotel Winecoff is only awaiting the last touches of the decorator.

"Ivy street has been regraded, and other portions of the city are being improved.

"Such things as these are real monuments to progress, and should serve further to pindicate the wisdom of buying Atlanta real estate now. No other city in the country can make a better showing."

Cases were made in police court yesterday against the Fulton Properties company and the Fulton Construction company, owners and builders respectively, of the new Ponce de Leon apartments, by Assistant Building Inspector Charles Bowen, o nthe grounds that the building juts out fourteen inches on Peachtree street sidewalk. A hearing was to be given in police court Tuesday, but the case was postponed.

Blake Goes With Trench.

H. C. Blake, who has been identified with the real estate business in Atlanta for the past eight years, has formed a connection with the L. L. Turner Realty company.

Mr. Blake is one of the best known realty men in the business in Atlanta and an expert on city and suburban properties.

Big Deals Soon.

While there were no specific announcements Tuesday, there were rumors that a south side tract had been sold for $40,000. No detailed announcement of this deal will be made public for several days yet.

INMAN PARK.

WE HAVE a lovely 11-room house in the pretty part of Inman Park, on large corner lot, with all conveniences, large porches, plenty of closets and abundance of back yard, just the location for splendid private home or large enough for a few first-class boarders; just put in splendid condition. Price $75 to A-1 tenant.

ON COLQUITT and on Austin avenue we have two of the best 8-room houses that we know of. These are modern and most attractive in design, on large, shaded lots, and the location are the best that we can offer in the city. To act now means either season for houses of this character, you will get a home and a rental that you could not hope to get in September. Let us tell you about these.

NORTH BOULEVARD.

BEAUTIFULLY located, on an elegant lot, we have one of the prettiest and best arranged 8-room houses on the north side. This house is thoroughly modern, and has all the features of a place built for a home. It is splendidly lighted throughout. The owner is willing to lease this to an acceptable tenant for a year, might make it some shorter, and we will name a figure that the house ought to rent for without a stick of furniture. See us about this.

ROSWELL ROAD, at the intersection of Johnson's Ferry, Dunwoody, Lawrenceville, and Sandy Springs Roads, we offer 185 acres of the prettiest land in Fulton county. It is composed of several old home places, and was purchased at one time by one of Atlanta's most prominent attorneys for a country estate. It is located in a natural five points that treffic from Cobb, Milton and DeKalb must pass coming to Atlanta, making it one of the most commanding properties in north Fulton county. Located on a natural ridge known in the neighborhood as the "Hogback." You get a fine view of Stone Mountain, Kennesaw Mountain and Atlanta. It has a total of 17,500 feet of road frontage, 13,000 of which is paved. We have been informed by several experts that there is nothing in Fulton county like it, as to road frontage, and that the entire property should sell for $100,000 to $125,000 within the next five years.

If we could look ahead and see Roswell Road made into a beautiful 100-foot Boulevard, connecting with the proposed Riverside Drive, or see a car line out Roswell Road (it is certain to come), we could see this land selling for $10.00 per front foot.

We simply make the above remarks so as to try and get you to think about, or see this property through the same channel or glasses we are looking through, as many fortunes are lost every year from the fact that you cannot see a real estate proposition in the same light the real estate agent sees it, and want you to imagine what it would sell for as a town site proposition with a car line and its present three miles of graded and paved road.

We have subdivided this property into small tracts and are offering them as home building sites with restrictions as to stores. There isn't a possible doubt in our minds as to this property being a town site within the next five years, and we predict that every purchaser will double his money within that time.

One tract, 11 12-100 acres, fronting 447 feet on Johnson's Ferry Paved Road, and 807 feet on Roswell Road. A corner with a good house on it. It is covered with shade and some of the finest fruit in Fulton county. Next door to school house. Price $4,500. Easy terms.

One tract of 16½ acres with 3,627 feet of road frontage, 2,646 feet of it paved; fronts on Roswell, Sandy Springs and Johnson's Ferry Roads. Elevated and covered with large shade trees; an old home place, and without question the prettiest building site around Atlanta. Price $8,500. Easy terms.

One tract of 18¼ acres, fronting 798 feet on Roswell Road; 1,824 feet on Johnson's Ferry Road, all paved, on corner, and another old home place with beautiful building site, covered with shade. Price $7,500. Easy terms.

One tract of 60 acres, as pretty a tract of land as you have seen anywhere. Fronts 644 feet on Roswell Road; 715 feet on Johnson's Ferry Road paved; 1,193 feet on Johnson's Ferry Road not paved. Covered with fruit and a fine never-failing peach orchard. A settlement road running through it, giving about 2,000 feet more frontage. Price $15,000. Easy terms. It is in a home settlement, and we believe that you can double your money if you will cut it into one to two-acre tracts.

One tract of 9 acres fronting 1,254 feet on Johnson's Ferry Paved Road. A beautiful building site. Price $2,000. Easy terms.

CABS AIDING CRIME, DECLARE OFFICERS

Report of Many Victims Lead the Police to Believe the "System" Is Operating in Atlanta.

Assistant Chief E. L. Jett has begun a rigid investigation of cab lines in the Terminal station and downtown districts in an effort to end what the police believe to be a "system" of criminal operations that has been in practice for several weeks.

The chief made a personal tour of the business section and Terminal district early last night. His action is a result of numerous complaints that have recently flooded police headquarters from victims of robberies and crime that were committed in cabs which had been hired for conveyance to parts of the city.

Promotion of Robberies.

The police and detectives are of the theory that unlicensed cab lines are being oparated purely for the purpose of robbery and the promotion of crime. This has been shown by the discovery that a number of the hacks which figured in robberies and hold-ups were not legally listed at police headquarters.

One of the most glaring instances brought to official notice was the highway robbery of two strangers a night or so ago, who, upon obtaining a cab at the Terminal station to be carried to a cross-town address, were carried, unaware of their whereabouts, to a desolate section near Elliot street.

There the cab was stopped in the shadows of a side street among a group of negroes. While the driver of the conveyance sat inactive on his seat, the negroes swiftly relieved the strangers of their money and valuables.

Woman Has Narrow Escape.

Another case reported to headquarters was the apparent attempt of a negro cab driver to lure a woman, an out-of-town resident, into the outskirts of the south side. The police have her name and address. She expressed a willingness to testify in case the negro ever was arraigned in court.

Several nights ago, upon arriving at the Terminal station, she hired a cab to be driven to the Union station, where she intended making connection with an out-going train. After being driven for several blocks a street sign showed her that the hack was far out Formwalt street. She called to the cabman, and upon threatening to summon a policeman if he did not turn back, was conveyed to the Union station, arriving there barely in time to catch her train. So little time did she have that she was unable to report the matter to the police until her return trip through the city.

FIFTH REGIMENT BOYS TO BREAK CAMP TODAY

By Robert Quin.

St. Simons Island, Ga., July 15.—(Special.)—The entire Fifth regiment left Camp Joseph M. Brown in heavy marching order shortly after noon today to spend the night out on the field. Each man carried two days' rations and from the colonel down each man will cook his own supper and breakfast. The regiment will bivouac about 5 miles out from camp. It is expected the "enemy" will attack at daybreak.

Returning to camp Wednesday, the regiment will immediately begin to pack up for the return trip to Atlanta. At the sound of the bugle every tent in camp will drop simultaneously and in a few minutes all the tentage and luggage will be on wagons ready to be loaded on the lighters. The regiment will arrive in Atlanta Thursday morning over the A., B. & A.

The camp has been a pleasant outing for every member of the regiment and the army officers supervising the instruction course are gratified at the interest taken by each man in the work.

NEW BALE RULES CAUSE SETTEGAST TO KILL SELF

Augusta, Ga., July 15.—(Special.)—New rules requiring cotton bales for export to be of uniform size and condition are said to have preyed on Joseph Settegast's mind so that he committed suicide here today. He was found in his bed with a bullet hole in his right temple. He grasped a revolver in his hand.

Settegast was 50 years old and was one of the leading cotton dealers in Georgia.

It is said the new rules regulating bales would have forced him to change his methods to such an extent as to cause him big financial loss.

NEW CREMATORY READY NEXT WEEK

Sanitary Chief John Jentzen Announces That Destruction of Garbage Will Begin Then.

Santiary Chief John Jentzen expects to use the new $276,000 crematory for the destruction of the city's garbage next week.

One furnace has been completed and is being tried through the process of drying out. The second furnace will be finished at the end of the week, and the third will be complete sometime next week. According to city officials the city will be in position to use at least one of the burners next week. Chief Jentzen hopes to burn at least fifty tons a day, beginning on Monday.

The plant will be operated under the supervision of the New York Destructor company's engineers until such time as the city has formally accepted it. Mayor Woodward, who opposed the plant, is not likely to take any further action unless something goes wrong. He says, however, that he will insist that the plant undergo a rigid test before it is taken over.

Sale of Market Site.

City of Raleigh, N. C.

The City of Raleigh, N. C., will receive sealed bids, addressed to the Mayor, up to Monday, the 11th day of August, 1913, at 12 o'clock m., for the sale of the Wiers House and site, located in the heart of the business section of the city, surrounded by four streets, Fayetteville, the principal business street, on the west; Wilmington, the principal wholesale street, on the east, and two thirty-foot streets on the north and south. This property faces 54 feet on Fayetteville street and runs back 210 feet to Wilmington street.

Just across the street is situated the Merchants' National Bank. Just to the south, within one hundred feet, the new thirteen-story building of the Citizens' National Bank, and within one hundred and fifty feet, on Wilmington street, the new twelve-story building of the Commercial National Bank, these two last named buildings at a cost upwards of $600,000. Within three hundred feet are situated three other banks, one of which has just been completed at a cost of $150,000; the Masonic Temple, the largest retail hardware, furniture, goods, carpets and drug stores and the postoffice building, now being remodeled at a cost of $390,000. Within four hundred feet are the two largest hotels. The plans have been drawn for the erection of a new courthouse to cost $250,000, within this district. This is a most ideal site for any store, hotel or office building.

Raleigh has made more progress in the past four years than any other city in North Carolina. It has 23,000 inhabitants; is situated in a most magnificent farming country, within a radius of seventy-five miles, over 800,000 people; it has three railway systems and the largest hydro-electric distributing station in the state of North Carolina.

Raleigh is the educational center of the state and during the nine months of each year more than twenty-five hundred students from a distance are in attendance upon its colleges and universities.

This is positively the best real estate proposition in the state of North Carolina. Sale is authorized by special act of legislature and title perfect. No bid of less than eighty thousand dollars will be considered, and the purchaser must agree to erect a building to cost not less than one hundred thousand dollars, the city reserving the right to reject all bids.

Terms: One-third cash, balance in one and two years. Delivery of building not later than May 1, 1914, under the act of legislature; no interest will be charged upon unpaid portion of purchase price until delivery; city will receive rents until delivery; certified check for $5,000 must accompany each bid to show good faith. For further information address James I. Johnson, Mayor, City of Raleigh. Blue Prints showing whole situation sent on application.

NOTICE TO BUILDING AND HEATING CONTRACTORS.

Contractors wishing to bid on the Dining Hall building to be erected at Tallahassee, Fla., the grounds of the Florida State College for Women, will immediately file their application for drawings and specifications with W. A. Edwards, Architect, 612 Candler building, Atlanta, Ga., accompanying same with a certified check for $250, payable to said architect, to be forfeited if drawings and specifications are not returned in the time specified; and also to be forfeited if the contractor does not make a bona fide bid.

Sub-contractors can procure drawings and specifications by paying $10 cash for use of same.

Bids will be received until 3 o'clock p. m., August 20, at the Windsor Hotel, Jacksonville, Fla., and must be addressed to F. M. Young, Chairman. Bids for the building must be accompanied with a certified check in the amount of $1,000 each for the heating $500.

Right to reject any and all bids reserved.

BOARD OF CONTROL.
